Samaritans of Leatherhead, Epsom & Dorking

for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

Samaritans of Leatherhead, Epsom & Dorking is one of over 200 Samaritans branches across the UK that provide confidential emotional support to those in distress or despair. The Leatherhead branch is an independent charity registered with the charity commission and an affiliated branch of the main UK and Irish Samaritans charity.

The Charity offers six main services to the community:

1. Emotional support by telephone, email, online chat or in person from our Centre at 7 Church Road Leatherhead
2. Training, support and guidance at Her Majesty's Prison (HMP), Downview through delivery of the Listener Scheme
3. Emotional wellbeing talks to pupils attending local Schools
4. Talks and visits to local groups in the community
5. Assistance to the wider Samaritans organisation
6. Partnerships with local organisations including Surrey & Borders NHS, Surrey CC and Surrey police

Because of the need to protect against Covid transmission, services involving face-to-face meetings with the public were suspended in March 2020. They have now re-introduced, with the exception of face-to-face emotional support at the branch. Demand for this service has been declining for many years, and the Trustees have decided not to reintroduce it for the time being, though the position will be kept under review.

Our services support Samaritans' Vision, Mission and Values:

Our Vision

Our vision is that fewer people die by suicide.

To achieve this, we believe Samaritans has a crucial role to play in:

- Reducing the risk factors that make some people more likely to take their own lives.
- Ensuring that people who are at increased risk of suicide are supported.
- Making it less likely that people who do experience suicidal thoughts act on them.
- Reducing the likelihood that people will develop suicidal thoughts.

Our Mission

We're here every day and night of the year for anyone struggling to cope. We make sure people have somewhere to turn and support when they need it most. We work with communities to let people know we're here for them and we campaign to make suicide prevention a priority.

Our Values

Our support services adapt to the changing environment, but the values at the core of our listening service remain constant:

Listening

Exploring feelings alleviates distress and helps people to reach a better understanding of their situation and the options open to them.

Confidentiality

If people feel safe, they are more likely to be open about their feelings.

Non-judgemental

We want people to be able to talk to us without fear of prejudice or rejection. People making their own decisions wherever possible. We believe that people have the right to find their own solution and that telling people what to do takes responsibility away from them.

Human contact

Giving people time, undivided attention and empathy meets a fundamental emotional need and reduces distress and despair.

SERVICE DELIVERY

The total number of contacts answered by our volunteers in 2022/23 where callers sought emotional support was 13,578, a figure very similar to the previous year. We increased the number of phone calls to 12,074, compared to 11,389 in 2021/22, but the number of emails was reduced from 2,175 to 1,386, reflecting some changes in the way the national email service is delivered. Our webchat service is still being piloted after its introduction in 2020/21, and we responded to 118 requests for support by this means.

Maintaining the safety of our callers, our volunteers and their families remained our top priority.

At year-end, we had 119 branch volunteers. Although slightly fewer than 2022, this figure still represents a substantial increase of 15-20% on numbers which were typical before the pandemic. The number of those leaving the branch has fallen, and fewer have been seeking to take significant periods of absence.

We were able to continue recruitment and training of new volunteers throughout the year, though there has been some reduction in applications and in those progressing to training over the last year, more obviously from early 2023. We are taking part in local recruitment events and targeting specific groups to increase awareness of the opportunities.

We have a continuing programme of training and development for existing volunteers to ensure the continuing quality of our service. We are very grateful for the contributions from a number of external speakers, who have talked to volunteers on subjects ranging from prison to safeguarding.

Awareness packs designed to encourage those in need to call us and also to improve recruitment have been distributed to over 30 Churches, Community Hubs, Sports Clubs, School Staff Rooms, GP surgeries and others. This continues and has presented opportunities to extend our outreach services in partnership with other local organisations.

Following the pandemic, we were able to resume delivering talks to schools in the Spring of 2022, while the Listener service at HMP Downview has now returned to near normal.

Last year we were also able to participate in several local and national events. For example teams of our volunteers were on Epsom and Leatherhead stations on "Brew Monday" in January, and in February we took part in a "Time to Talk" at Epsom Library. We are steadily building up this programme.

Our thanks go to all our branch volunteers for the time and care that they have committed to the well-being of our callers and fellow volunteers

FINANCIAL REPORT

Financially, the charity remains in a relatively healthy position, and we were able to fund several improvements to our building to enhance its environmental sustainability and arrangements for our volunteers. During the year we were extremely fortunate to benefit from a generous donation from Leatherhead Rotary Club. Like other charities, we face significant increases in the costs of services alongside increased difficulty in raising funds. These challenges will require continuing effort in 2023/4.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Trustees are elected annually by the Charity's membership, and work within a framework of policies for branches developed by Samaritans nationally. Policies developed specifically for the branch include a policy that the Treasurer should provide Trustees with regular reports on the charity's reserves, with the aim that these should fall between a minimum of one and a maximum of two year's running costs.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Samaritans of Leatherhead, Epsom & Dorking

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Samaritans of Leatherhead, Epsom & Dorking (the Trust) for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure. It is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
