Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of the Christian faith according to the principles of the Baptist denomination.

The Church may also advance education and carry out other charitable purposes in the United Kingdom and/or other parts of the world.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The activities may include but are not restricted to:

- regular public worship, prayer, Bible study, preaching and teaching;
- baptism, as defined in the Baptist Union's Declaration of Principle;
- the Communion of the Lord's Supper which shall normally be observed at least once a month;
- evangelism and mission, locally, regionally, nationally and internationally;
- the teaching, encouragement, welcome and inclusion of young people;
- nurture and growth of Christian disciples;
- education and training for Christian and community service;
- giving and encouraging pastoral care;
- supporting and encouraging charitable social action in the United Kingdom and abroad;
- encouraging relationships with and supporting Baptists and other Christians.

The public benefits that flow from these activities are:

- (a) an enhancement of community, whereby regular gathering together promotes well being, and lessens loneliness within the local community;
- (b) increased social cohesion;
- (c) enhanced sense of wider commitment to the needs of others, and an active participation in works that support those in need;
- (d) education and teaching that reaches beyond the local community and impacts people internationally.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- (a) a regular community meal that brings local people together to explore faith and build relationships;
- (b) the setup of chaplaincy among local businesses;
- (c) pastoral care to local people from a wide variety of backgrounds and situations;
- (d) mental health support;
- (e) published books that have been sold internationally and provided education;
- (f) teaching within schools and universities;
- (g) resources for schools and churches;
- (h) radio interviews and segments giving a wider voice from the church perspective;
- (i) the provision of services such as funerals, weddings, and children's blessings;
- (j) opinion piece journalism providing a Christian and philosophical perspective on political and societal issues;

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Should the charity cease its work, any funds left in the bank after all expenses have been paid would be gifted to another charity doing similar work, or with similar values.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
