Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document: Constitution

How the charity is constituted: Charitable Incorporated Organisation

Trustee selection methods: The Trustee Board is responsible for appointing new trustees subject to requirements set out in the Charity's governing documents. Potential new trustees are assessed on the basis of their experience, skills and motivation, as well as the Trustee Board's own assessment of its gaps and the skills required to deliver the Charity's strategy. This is primarily assessed through a candidate's CV and meeting with one or more of the existing trustees.

Additional governance issues: Effective Altruism UK has a risk register which it uses to monitor and assess risks. This register is reviewed at least annually.

Activities and objectives

Background to understanding the activities carried out by Effective Altruism UK

Effective Altruism UK's activities can be split into three categories:

1. UK Community Building. During the year, Effective Altruism UK had two employees based in London who have worked over the last year to deliver our charitable objectives – the promotion of civil responsibility and citizenship and concern for the effectiveness of charities – among Londoners. These staff work under the name Effective Altruism UK, which was previously branded as Effective Altruism London. The Effective Altruism UK website can be viewed at: <https://effectivealtruism.uk>
2. Grantmaking. Effective Altruism UK has also made grants to other organisations around the world with similar charitable aims, making use of funds raised from UK donors for this purpose.

A commitment to creating a public benefit

All decisions taken by Trustees and by the staff were taken solely with concern to creating benefits for the eventual beneficiaries, and any benefit to the immediate community was incidental to achieving this aim.

UK Community Building

Beneficiaries

When considering the projects undertaken it is helpful to distinguish between the immediate community and the eventual beneficiaries:

- The immediate community are the people, primarily in London, to whom we promote citizenship and civic responsibility. We support, encourage and inspire these people to give of their time, skills and money to charitable purposes, and to have concern for the efficiency and effectiveness of those contributions.
- The eventual beneficiaries are the people who benefit from the contributions of time, skill and money. They represent as diverse a group as charitable causes cover, including but not limited to people living in poverty in developing countries, future generations who might be impacted by climate change or abused animals.

For example, in previous years Effective Altruism UK has run events attended by philanthropic finance professionals. At this event the guests from the immediate community received hospitality (drinks and snacks) and talks from speakers with experience of making large donations. Yet the aim of the event was to encourage guests to increase the size and effectiveness of their donations for the benefit of the eventual beneficiaries.

Activities

Here is an overview of our key activities:

Research	There are a number of existing charitable organisations that carry out research	10%

	to help people to do good more effectively, such as the Centre for Effective Altruism (a registered charity in England and Wales, Charity Number 1149828), GiveWell (501(c)(3) organisation in the USA, EIN: 20-8625442) and Animal Charity Evaluators (501(c)(3) public charity in the USA, EIN 36-4684978). Effective Altruism UK staff did not carry out significant amounts of original research or independent charity vetting but did invest time into understanding the existing research available in order to best be able to promote concern for the efficiency and effectiveness of charities.
Communications	The Charity promoted taking actions, offered support and encouraged acts of citizenship by the use of a regular email newsletter and Facebook posts. These channels were mostly used for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Promoting events, both those organised by Effective Altruism UK and those organised by third parties; ● Linking to articles promoting charitable giving, choosing effective charities and ethical career choices; and ● Publicising volunteer opportunities and job vacancies for organisations supporting global health and development, animal welfare and clean meat technology, and reducing global catastrophic risks. ● Maintaining an Effective Altruism UK website, including a directory of useful resources and a member directory ● Creating and maintaining a Slack for coordination 	15%
Community events and programmes	The Charity helped organise small in-person and online events and programmes to strengthen the community around effective giving and impactful careers, in order to help sustain members' initial enthusiasm through peer-to-peer encouragement and to facilitate the organic exchange of related information, tips and advice between community members.	20%
Sub-community events	There are a number of specialist effective altruism communities in London, normally organised around a cause, career group or university. These sub-communities are normally volunteer-led and organise discussion events, talks/lectures, research projects and socials, which are fully in line with Effective Altruism UK's objects, but not fully controlled by Effective Altruism UK. The Charity provided support to these sub-communities through marketing, planning and covering overheads.	10%
One-to-one coaching	The Charity provided one-to-one coaching sessions with individuals interested in increasing the effectiveness of their contributions of time, skills and money for charitable purposes.	30%
Strategy development, impact measurement and administration	The Charity's staff and volunteers invested time into developing a strategy to maximise the Charity's impact. The Charity then collected data during the course of its work to estimate its impact, and then adjust its strategy accordingly. Details of our impact measurement can be found below in 'Achievements and performance'. The charity also required basic administration, including arranging insurance, paying staff salaries and financial reporting.	15%

Note: Split is based on a rough post-hoc estimate of staff and volunteer time.

Grantmaking

There are a number of organisations around the world with similar aims of promoting citizenship and concern for the effectiveness and efficiency of charities. The Trustees consider it good practice to be in touch with these organisations, so that we can support and learn from one another. One of the ways we have supported such organisations is by making grants to support their activities, making use of donations collected from UK donors to support this purpose. During the year, EA UK made grants to one organisation (SoGive). This accounted for less than 5% of staff time and volunteer time. All of the funds used for grantmaking had been donated to Effective Altruism UK on a restricted basis, specifically for that purpose. Where appropriate, granted funds were restricted to activities which are consistent with the objects of Effective Altruism UK.

SoGive performs research on topics relevant to effective altruism. SoGive also runs a successful volunteer programme which has not only helped SoGive to build a database of charities and their impact, but also to support them to transition to a career in which they make the world a better place.

EA Good Governance Project

The EA Good Governance Project provides resources, training and consultancy to organisations and individuals to promote effective governance structures and mechanisms within the effective altruism community.

Additional details of objectives and activities

Contribution made by volunteers

The Charity benefits from significant contributions of time by approximately 25 individuals, including but not limited to being a trustee or leading a sub-community. The Charity also encourages individuals to contribute time to other charities and projects if it is likely they will have more impact that way.

Achievements and performance

Effective Altruism UK

During the 2024-25 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK provided 1-1 coaching and organised events.

Grantmaking

SoGive

During the 2024-25 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK made grants totalling £3,000.00 to SoGive. SoGive used the money to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of charities by researching their effectiveness and supporting donors to give more effectively.

The EA Good Governance Project

During the 2024-25 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK made payments totalling £9,293.65 on behalf of the EA Good Governance Project (which does not have its own bank account).

Financial Review

Policy on reserves

Effective Altruism UK aims to hold enough reserves for:

- Between 2 and 6 months of expenditure - UK Community Building
- Zero - Grantmaking

The trustees believe that this is an appropriate policy, having taken into account the lack of contingent liabilities, the quality of support from funders, lack of financial risks such as currency risk, the lack of other risk sources such as a defined benefit pension scheme, and the trustees' risk appetite.

As at 31st March 2024, the unrestricted cash balance together with the restricted UK Community Building comprised £99,429.93, equivalent to approximately 18 months based on FY25 expenditure levels. Note that a significant portion of this should be considered unearned income as money was received from the Centre for Effective Altruism relating to future periods.

Funds materially in deficit

No funds are materially in deficit.

Further financial review details regarding fundraising

All of the funds raised for UK Community Building before 1st January 2019 came from the local London philanthropic community. Largely this was people who had attended our events or who had found the content useful and inspiring and helpful for them to become better philanthropists and who wanted to help give back so more people can be supported. Since the 1st of January 2019, Effective Altruism UK has received funding from the Centre for Effective Altruism to continue its work inspiring and helping people become better philanthropists.

All of the earmarked funds raised by Effective Altruism UK for Grantmaking were raised by those projects / other organisations putting donors in touch with Effective Altruism UK.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/25 YYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document: Constitution

How the charity is constituted: Charitable Incorporated Organisation

Trustee selection methods: The Trustee Board is responsible for appointing new trustees subject to requirements set out in the Charity's governing documents. Potential new trustees are assessed on the basis of their experience, skills and motivation, as well as the Trustee Board's own assessment of its gaps and the skills required to deliver the Charity's strategy. This is primarily assessed through a candidate's CV and meeting with one or more of the existing trustees.

Additional governance issues: Effective Altruism UK has a risk register which it uses to monitor and assess risks. This register is reviewed at least annually.

Activities and objectives

Background to understanding the activities carried out by Effective Altruism UK

Effective Altruism UK's activities can be split into three categories:

1. UK Community Building. Effective Altruism UK has two employees based in London who have worked over the last year to deliver our charitable objectives – the promotion of civil responsibility and citizenship and concern for the effectiveness of charities – among Londoners. These staff work under the name Effective Altruism UK, which was previously branded as Effective Altruism London. The Effective Altruism UK website can be viewed at: <https://effectivealtruism.uk>
2. Grantmaking. Effective Altruism UK has also made grants to other organisations around the world with similar charitable aims, making use of funds raised from UK donors for this purpose.

A commitment to creating a public benefit

All decisions taken by Trustees and by the staff were taken solely with concern to creating benefits for the eventual beneficiaries, and any benefit to the immediate community was incidental to achieving this aim.

UK Community Building

Beneficiaries

When considering the projects undertaken it is helpful to distinguish between the immediate community and the eventual beneficiaries:

- The immediate community are the people, primarily in London, to whom we promote citizenship and civic responsibility. We support, encourage and inspire these people to give of their time, skills and money to charitable purposes, and to have concern for the efficiency and effectiveness of those contributions.
- The eventual beneficiaries are the people who benefit from the contributions of time, skill and money. They represent as diverse a group as charitable causes cover, including but not limited to people living in poverty in developing countries, future generations who might be impacted by climate change or abused animals.

For example, in previous years Effective Altruism London has run events attended by philanthropic finance professionals. At this event the guests from the immediate community received hospitality (drinks and snacks) and talks from speakers with experience of making large donations. Yet the aim of the event was to encourage guests to increase the size and effectiveness of their donations for the benefit of the eventual beneficiaries.

Activities

Here is an overview of our key activities:

Research	There are a number of existing charitable organisations that carry out research to help people to do good more effectively, such as the Centre for Effective Altruism (a registered charity in England and Wales, Charity Number 1149828), GiveWell (501(c)(3) organisation in the USA, EIN: 20-8625442) and Animal Charity Evaluators (501(c)(3) public charity in the USA, EIN 36-4684978). Effective Altruism UK staff did not carry out significant amounts of original research or independent charity vetting but did invest time into understanding the existing research available in order to best be able to promote concern for the efficiency and effectiveness of charities.	10%
Communications	The Charity promoted taking actions, offered support and encouraged acts of citizenship by the use of a regular email newsletter and Facebook posts. These channels were mostly used for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Promoting events, both those organised by Effective Altruism London and those organised by third parties; ● Linking to articles promoting charitable giving, choosing effective charities and ethical career choices; and ● Publicising volunteer opportunities and job vacancies for organisations supporting global health and development, animal welfare and clean meat technology, and reducing global catastrophic risks. ● Maintaining an Effective Altruism UK website, including a directory of useful resources and a member directory ● Creating and maintaining a Slack for coordination 	15%
Community events	The Charity helped organise small in person and online events to strengthen the community around effective giving, in order to help sustain members' initial enthusiasm through peer-to-peer encouragement and to facilitate the organic exchange of related information, tips and advice between community members.	20%
Sub-community events	There are a number of specialist effective altruism communities in London, normally organised around a cause, career group or university. These sub-communities are normally volunteer-led and organise discussion events, talks/lectures, research projects and socials, which are fully in line with Effective Altruism UK's objects, but not fully controlled by Effective Altruism UK. The Charity provided support to these sub-communities through marketing, planning and covering overheads.	10%
One-to-one coaching	The Charity provided one-to-one coaching sessions with individuals interested in increasing the effectiveness of their contributions of time, skills and money for charitable purposes.	30%
Strategy development, impact measurement and administration	The Charity's staff and volunteers invested time into developing a strategy to maximise the Charity's impact. The Charity then collected data during the course of its work to estimate its impact, and then adjust its strategy accordingly. Details of our impact measurement can be found below in 'Achievements and performance'. The charity also required basic administration, including arranging insurance, paying staff salaries and financial reporting.	15%

Note: Split is based on a rough post-hoc estimate of staff and volunteer time.

Grantmaking

There are a number of organisations around the world with similar aims of promoting citizenship and concern for the effectiveness and efficiency of charities. The Trustees consider it good practice to be in touch with these organisations, so that we can support and learn from one another. One of the ways we have supported such organisations is by making grants to support their activities, making use of donations collected from UK donors to support this purpose. During the year, EA UK made grants to two organisations (One For The World and SoGive) and two individuals. This accounted for less than 5% of staff time and volunteer time. All of the funds used for grantmaking had been donated to Effective Altruism UK on a restricted basis, specifically for that purpose. Where appropriate, granted funds were restricted to activities which are consistent with the objects of Effective Altruism UK.

One for the World

One for the World asks people to give at least 1% of their income to highly effective charities. Founded at Wharton in 2014, it now has over 700 members across the US, Canada and Australia and over 20 chapters including Wharton MBA, Penn Law, Penn Undergrad, Harvard Business School and MIT Sloan MBA.

Effective Altruism UK is One For The World's partner in the UK and makes grants to One For The World out of funds that have been restricted for that purpose. Funds sent to One For The World are restricted to covering One For The World's operating costs, in line with Effective Altruism UK's charitable objects.

SoGive

SoGive performs research on topics relevant to effective altruism. SoGive also runs a successful volunteer programme which has not only helped SoGive to build a database of charities and their impact, but also to support them to transition to a career in which they make the world a better place.

The grantmaking relationship with SoGive was initiated during this fiscal year.

Additional details of objectives and activities

Contribution made by volunteers

The Charity benefits from significant contributions of time by approximately 35 individuals, including but not limited to being a trustee or leading a sub-community. The Charity also encourages individuals to contribute time to other charities and projects if it is likely they will have more impact that way.

Achievements and performance

Effective Altruism UK

For April 2022 - March 2023, there were 450+ 1-1 conversations and 100+ events organised or supported by EA London/UK, with over 1250 attendees. Based on subjective conservative estimates, Effective Altruism UK believes benefits of approximately £160,343.75 were created resulting from activities within this time period, a 1.7x counterfactual multiplier on the amount spent (£93,320.28). However, there are significant uncertainties and many baked assumptions involved with this.

Grantmaking

One For The World

During the 2022-23 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK made grants totalling £7,475.98 to One For The World. One For The World used the money to fund its operations. One For The World continues to expand its operations into the USA and UK.

SoGive

During the 2022-23 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK made grants totalling £65,208.75 to SoGive. SoGive used the money to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of charities by researching their effectiveness and supporting donors to give more effectively. This work also involved providing support to a community of c. 10 volunteers, some of whom have gone on to take jobs working to make the world a better place.

Grants to individuals

During the 2022-23 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK made grants to two individuals conducting work furthering our charitable purposes. The total amount of these grants came to £73,001.54.

Financial Review

Policy on reserves

Effective Altruism UK aims to hold enough reserves for:

- Between 2 and 6 months of expenditure - UK Community Building
- Zero - Grantmaking

The trustees believe that this is an appropriate policy, having taken into account the lack of contingent liabilities, the quality of support from funders, lack of financial risks such as currency risk, the lack of other risk sources such as a defined benefit pension scheme, and the trustees' risk appetite.

As at 31st March 2023, the unrestricted cash balance was £38,108.42, equivalent to approximately 4.0 months of budgeted FY24 UK Community Building expenditure.

Funds materially in deficit

No funds are materially in deficit.

Further financial review details regarding fundraising

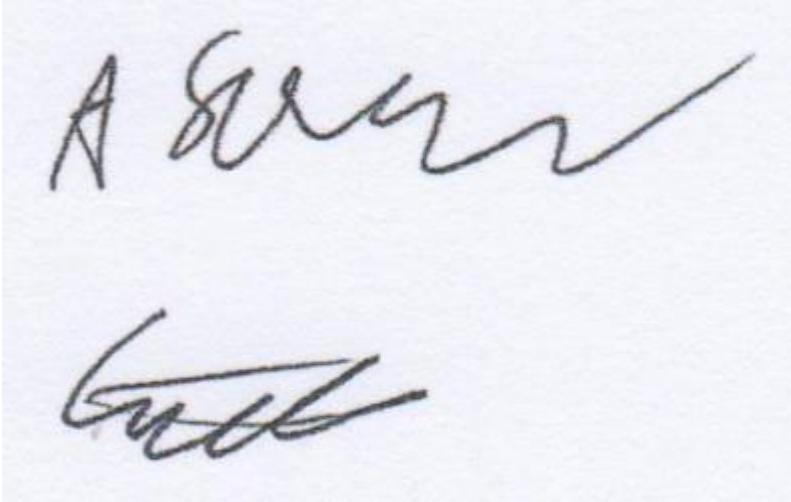

All of the funds raised for UK Community Building before 1st January 2019 came from the local London philanthropic community. Largely this was people who had attended our events or who had found the content useful and inspiring and helpful for them to become better philanthropists and who wanted to help give back so more people can be supported. Since the 1st of January 2019, Effective Altruism UK has received funding from the Centre for Effective Altruism to continue its work inspiring and helping people become better philanthropists.

All of the earmarked funds raised by Effective Altruism UK for Grantmaking were raised by those projects / other organisations putting donors in touch with Effective Altruism UK.

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Stocks and work in progress	Stocks held for sale as part of non-charitable trade are measured at the lower or cost or net realisable value. Goods or services provided as part of a charitable activity are measured at net realisable value based on the service potential provided by items of stock. Work in progress is valued at cost less any foreseeable loss that is likely to occur on the contract.	Yes*	No*	N/A*
Debtors	Debtors (including trade debtors and loans receivable) are measured on initial recognition at settlement amount after any trade discounts or amounts advanced by the charity. Subsequently, they are measured at the cash or other consideration expected to be received.	Yes*	No*	N/A*
Current asset investments	The charity has investments which it holds for resale or pending their sale and cash and cash equivalents with a maturity date less than one year. These include cash on deposit and cash equivalents with a maturity of less than one year held for investment purposes rather than to meet short-term cash commitments as they fall due. They are valued at fair value except where they qualify as basic financial instruments.	Yes*	No*	N/A*

Report of the Independent Examiner

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of Effective Altruism UK ('the Company')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the Company (and its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for then preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act'). Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of the Company's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since the Company's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a body listed in section 145 of the 2011 Act. I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of ICAEW, which is one of the listed bodies. I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

This report is made solely to the Company's Trustees, as a body, in accordance with Part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the Company's Trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an Independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Company and the Company's Trustees as a body, for my work or for this report.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document: Constitution

How the charity is constituted: Charitable Incorporated Organisation

Trustee selection methods: The Trustee Board is responsible for appointing new trustees subject to requirements set out in the Charity's governing documents. Potential new trustees are assessed on the basis of their experience, skills and motivation, as well as the Trustee Board's own assessment of its gaps and the skills required to deliver the Charity's strategy. This is primarily assessed through a candidate's CV and meeting with one or more of the existing trustees.

Additional governance issues: Effective Altruism UK has a risk register which it uses to monitor and assess risks. This register is reviewed at least annually.

Activities and objectives

Background to understanding the activities carried out by Effective Altruism UK

Effective Altruism UK's activities can be split into three categories:

1. UK Community Building (formerly Effective Altruism London). Effective Altruism UK has an employee based in London who has worked over the last year to deliver our charitable objectives – the promotion of civil responsibility and citizenship and concern for the effectiveness of charities – among Londoners. These staff work under the name Effective Altruism London (or EA London), which has been subsequently rebranded as Effective Altruism UK since the end of the fiscal year. The Effective Altruism UK website can be viewed at: <https://effectivealtruism.uk>
2. Effective Altruism for Christians. Effective Altruism UK employed one person from August 2020 to June 2021 to deliver our charitable objectives – the promotion of civil responsibility and citizenship and concern for the effectiveness of charities – among Christians, the majority of which live in the UK. These staff work under the name Effective Altruism for Christians. The Effective Altruism for Christians website can be viewed at: <https://www.eaforchristians.org>
3. Regranting. Where it is the wishes of donors, Effective Altruism UK has also regranting funds to other organisations around the world with similar charitable aims.

A commitment to creating a public benefit

All decisions taken by Trustees and by the staff were taken solely with concern to creating benefits for the eventual beneficiaries, and any benefit to the immediate community was incidental to achieving this aim.

UK Community Building (formerly Effective Altruism London)

Beneficiaries

When considering the projects undertaken it is helpful to distinguish between the immediate community and the eventual beneficiaries:

- The immediate community are the people, primarily in London, to whom we promote citizenship and civic responsibility. We support, encourage and inspire these people to give of their time, skills and money to charitable purposes, and to have concern for the efficiency and effectiveness of those contributions.
- The eventual beneficiaries are the people who benefit from the contributions of time, skill and money. They represent as diverse a group as charitable causes cover, including but not limited to people living in poverty in developing countries, future generations who might be impacted by climate change or abused animals.

For example, in previous years Effective Altruism London has run events attended by philanthropic finance professionals. At this event the guests from the immediate community received hospitality (drinks and snacks) and talks from speakers with experience of making large donations. Yet the aim of the event was to encourage guests to increase the size and effectiveness of their donations for the benefit of the eventual beneficiaries.

Activities

The 2021-22 fiscal year was the second year severely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. This reduced the number of in-person events that Effective Altruism London hosted, but did not have a significant adverse effect on the charity's ability to deliver against its objects. While these events may have been less engaging for participants than in-person events, they meant that people were able to participate from outside London and in some cases outside the UK.

Here is an overview of our key activities:

Research	There are a number of existing charitable organisations that carry out research to help people to do good more effectively. For example the Centre for Effective Altruism (a registered charity in England and Wales, Charity Number 1149828), GiveWell (501(c)(3) organisation in the USA, EIN: 20-8625442) and Animal Charity Evaluators (501(c)(3) public charity in the USA, EIN 36-4684978). Effective Altruism London staff did not carry out significant amounts of original research or independent charity vetting but did invest time into understanding the existing research available in order to best be able to promote concern for the efficiency and effectiveness of charities.	10%
Communications	The Charity promoted taking actions, offered support and encouraged acts of citizenship by the use of a regular email newsletter and Facebook posts. These channels were mostly used for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting events, both those organised by Effective Altruism London and those organised by third parties; • Linking to articles promoting charitable giving, choosing effective charities and ethical career choices; and • Publicising volunteer opportunities and job vacancies for organisations supporting global health and development, animal welfare and clean meat technology, and reducing global catastrophic risks. • Maintaining an Effective Altruism London website, including a directory of useful resources and a member directory • Creating and maintaining a Slack for coordination 	15%
Community events	The Charity helped organise small in person and online events to strengthen the community around effective giving, in order to help sustain members' initial enthusiasm through peer-to-peer encouragement and to facilitate the organic exchange of related information, tips and advice between community members.	20%
Sub-community events	There are a number of specialist effective altruism communities in London, normally organised around a cause, career group or university. These sub-communities are normally volunteer-led and organise discussion events, talks/lectures, research projects and socials, which are fully in line with Effective Altruism UK's objects, but not fully controlled by Effective Altruism London. The Charity provided support to these sub-communities through marketing, planning and covering overheads.	10%
One-to-one coaching	The Charity provided one-to-one coaching sessions with individuals interested in increasing the effectiveness of their contributions of time, skills and money for charitable purposes.	30%
Strategy	The Charity's staff and volunteers invested time into developing a strategy to	15%

development, impact measurement and administration	maximise the Charity's impact. The Charity then collected data during the course of its work to estimate its impact, and then adjust its strategy accordingly. Details of our impact measurement can be found below in 'Achievements and performance'. The charity also required basic administration, including arranging insurance, paying staff salaries and financial reporting.

Note: Split is based on a rough post-hoc estimate of staff and volunteer time.

Effective Altruism for Christians

Beneficiaries

Effective Altruism for Christians also thinks in terms of:

- The immediate community are the people, primarily Christians in the UK.
- The eventual beneficiaries who benefit from the contributions of time, skill and money by the immediate community.

Activities

The majority Effective Altruism for Christians's (EACH's) activities involve promoting the principles of Effective Altruism to Christians. Over the last year, EACH did this through talks to Christian student groups in the UK, launching the Christian Campaign for Effective Charity (CCEC) and organising an annual conference.

Two major things occurred during the year. Firstly, our employee resigned. Secondly, two new non-profits were incorporated to run the EACH project: Christians for Impact, a charity registered in the UK, and Christians for Impact USA, a 501(c)3 registered in the USA. As a result, it was decided to wind down the EACH project hosted by Effective Altruism UK. The remaining restricted funds (£2,853.32) were regranted to Christians for Impact USA, which hired its first full-time employee in January 2022. Money was regranted on the condition that Christians for Impact USA will spend the money in line Effective Altruism UK's objects and the Trustees are confident that this will be the case.

Regranting

There are a number of organisations around the world with similar aims of promoting citizenship and concern for the effectiveness and efficiency of charities. The Trustees consider it good practice to be in touch with these organisations, so that we can support and learn from one another. One of the ways we have supported such organisations is by regranted funds from UK donors to these organisations. During the year, EA UK regranted to three organisations: Christians for Impact USA (see above), One For The World and SoGive. This accounted for less than 5% of staff time and volunteer time. All of the funds that Effective Altruism UK regranted had been donated to Effective Altruism UK on a restricted basis, specifically for that purpose. Where appropriate, regranted funds were restricted to activities which are consistent with the objects of Effective Altruism UK.

One for the World

One for the World asks people to give at least 1% of their income to highly effective charities. Founded at Wharton in 2014, it now has over 700 members across the US, Canada and Australia and over 20 chapters including Wharton MBA, Penn Law, Penn Undergrad, Harvard Business School and MIT Sloan MBA.

Effective Altruism UK is One For The World's partner in the UK and re-grants funds to One For The World that have been restricted for that purpose. Funds sent to One For The World are restricted to covering One For The World's operating costs, in line with Effective Altruism UK's charitable objects.

SoGive

SoGive performs research on topics relevant to effective altruism. SoGive also runs a successful volunteer programme which has not only helped SoGive to build a database of charities and their impact, but also to support them to transition to a career in which they make the world a better place.

The re-granting relationship with SoGive was initiated during this fiscal year.

Additional details of objectives and activities

Contribution made by volunteers

The Charity benefits from significant contributions of time by approximately 35 individuals, including but not limited to being a trustee or leading a sub-community. The Charity also encourages individuals to contribute time to other charities and projects if it is likely they will have more impact that way.

Achievements and performance

Effective Altruism London

In February 2021, Effective Altruism UK conducted a detailed impact assessment of the impact of Effective Altruism London in the 2019 and 2020 calendar years. During this period, Effective Altruism London spent £72k. Using a bottom-up methodology looking at each major beneficiary on a case by case basis, Effective Altruism UK believes benefits of approximately £135k were created, i.e. 1.9x the amount spent¹. There are always going to be significant uncertainties with an analysis. However, by taking a conservative approach in calculating the benefits, the Trustees have relative confidence that benefits outweigh costs and took the decision to continue the activities of Effective Altruism London.

Effective Altruism for Christians

The Effective Altruism for Christians project was based on a robust Theory of Change developed by the employee and shared with the Trustees. Due to its short life, Effective Altruism UK has not conducted any kind of quantitative impact assessment.

Regranting

One For The World

During the 2021-22 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK regranted a total of £50,000.00 to One For The World. One For The World used the money to fund its operations. One For The World continues to expand its operations into the USA and UK.

SoGive

During the 2021-22 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK regranted a total of £27,708.75 to SoGive. SoGive used the money to fund work to build up SoGive's database of charities, including data on how much impact they achieved and ratings on their impact. This work also involved providing support to a community of c20 volunteers, some of whom have gone on to take jobs working to make the world a better place.

Financial Review

Policy on reserves

Effective Altruism UK aims to hold enough reserves for:

- Between 2 and 6 months of expenditure - Effective Altruism London
- At least 1 month of expenditure - Effective Altruism for Christians
- Zero - Regranting

¹ Given the analysis involves significant use of personal data (in some cases sensitive), this analysis has not been published, even at an aggregate level, by Effective Altruism UK.

The trustees believe that this is an appropriate policy, having taken into account the lack of contingent liabilities, the quality of support from funders, lack of financial risks such as currency risk, the lack of other risk sources such as a defined benefit pension scheme, and the trustees' risk appetite.

As at 31st March 2022, the Unrestricted cash balance was £47,416.44, equivalent to approximately 12.4 months of budgeted FY23 Effective Altruism London expenditure. This is higher than the target band in our policy due to unexpected income during the previous fiscal years. The Trustees have taken action to address this, primarily by reducing the level of grant applied for from the Centre for Effective Altruism.

Funds materially in deficit

No funds are materially in deficit.

Further financial review details regarding fundraising

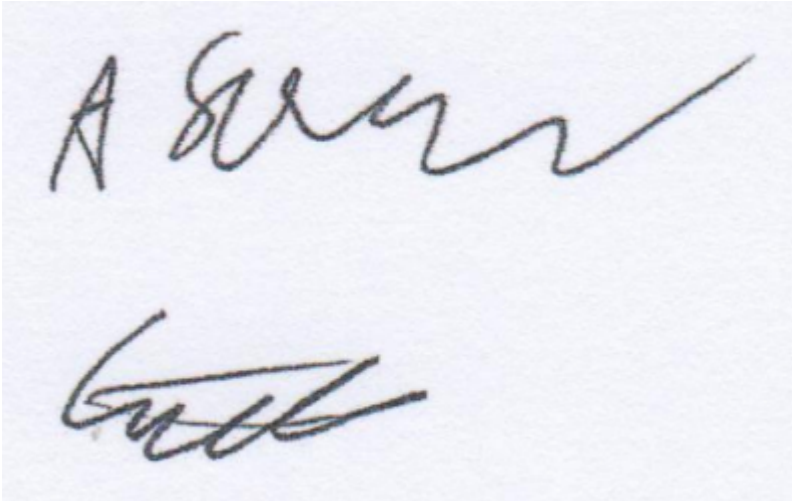

All of the funds raised for Effective Altruism London before 1st January 2019 came from the local London philanthropic community. Largely this was people who had attended our events or who had found the content useful and inspiring and helpful for them to become better philanthropists and who wanted to help give back so more people can be supported. Since the 1st of January 2019, Effective Altruism UK has received funding from the Centre for Effective Altruism to continue its work inspiring and helping people become better philanthropists.

All of the earmarked funds raised by Effective Altruism UK for Effective Altruism for Christians and Regranting were raised by those projects / other organisations putting donors in touch with Effective Altruism UK.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

A commitment to creating a public benefit

All decisions taken by Trustees and by the staff were taken solely with concern to creating benefits for the eventual beneficiaries, and any benefit to the immediate community was incidental to achieving this aim.

Effective Altruism London

Beneficiaries

When considering the actions taken by the staff of Effective Altruism London it is helpful to distinguish between the immediate community and the eventual beneficiaries:

- The immediate community are the people, primarily in London, to whom we promote citizenship and civic responsibility. We support, encourage and inspire these people to give of their time, skills and money to charitable purposes, and to have concern for the efficiency and effectiveness of those contributions.
- The eventual beneficiaries are the people who benefit from the contributions of time, skill and money. Yet the aim of the event was to encourage guests to increase the size and effectiveness of their donations for the benefit of the eventual beneficiaries.

Activities

The 2020-21 fiscal year has coincided with a period when regulations to reduce the spread of COVID-19 have prevented Effective Altruism London from hosting in-person events. Most events were moved to online. While these events may have been less engaging for participants than in-person events, they meant that people were able to participate from outside London and in some cases outside the UK.

Here is an overview of our key activities:

Research	There are a number of existing charitable organisations that carry out research to help people to good more effectively. For example the Centre for Effective Altruism (a registered charity in England and Wales, Charity Number 1149828), GiveWell (501(c)(3) organisation in the USA, EIN: 20-8625442) and Animal Charity Evaluators (501(c)(3) public charity in the USA, EIN 36-4684978). Effective Altruism for Christians

Beneficiaries

Effective Altruism for Christians also thinks in terms of:

- The immediate community are the people, primarily Christians in the UK.
- The eventual beneficiaries who benefit from the contributions of time, skill and money by the immediate community.

Activities

The majority Effective Altruism for Christians's (EACH's) activities involve promoting the principles of Effective Altruism to Christians. Over the last year, they did this through talks to Christian student groups in the UK, launching the Christian Campaign for Effective Charity (CCEC) and organising an annual conference (held in April 2021).

EACH gave around 10 online introductory talks to Christian student groups through Just Love, a charity that has clusters of students pursuing social justice activities at universities throughout the UK. The average audience size was around 10 people and some participants have engaged with EACH through the Facebook group and participation in further events.

In the first few months of CCEC, EACH has directed around $13,000 towards organisations rated highly by charity evaluator GiveWell, and gave a talk at Brown University to test out the format. EACH plans to run similar events over the next year to increase the Campaign's revenue.

EACH's conference (held after the end of EA UK's fiscal year, but largely organised during the fiscal year) was attended by 70-80 people in a virtual setting. The event included talks from six subject matter experts and opportunities for networking among participants.

Through the year, EACH also held a number of one-off events such as an event with EA LSE as part of their student unions interfaith programming and has advised or supported a number of other community building organisations (e.g. EA/Buddhism group, EA/Judaism group, EA Cambridge).

Regranting

There are a number of organisations around the world with similar aims of promoting citizenship and concern for the effectiveness and efficiency of charities. The EA UK Trustees consider it good practice to be in touch with these organisations, so that we can support and learn from one another. One of the ways we have supported such organisations is by regranting funds from UK donors to these organisations. EA UK has regranting to four organisations: Rethink Charity, Effective Altruism Foundation, Animal Charity Evaluators and One For The World. This accounted for less than 5% of staff time and volunteer time. All of the funds that EA UK sent to Rethink Charity, Effective Altruism Foundation, Animal Charity Evaluators and One For

The World had been donated to EA UK on a restricted basis, specifically for that purpose. Where appropriate, regranted funds were restricted to activities which are consistent with the objects of Effective Altruism UK.

Rethink Charity

Rethink Charity refers to Rethink Charity USA. The organisation has similar charitable aims to Effective Altruism UK. Its main projects are RC Forward, a cause-neutral donation routing fund for high-impact charities around the world, and EA Hub, a network for people looking to improve non-profit effectiveness.

Animal Charity Evaluators

Animal Charity Evaluators (ACE, <https://animalcharityevaluators.org>) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit located in the United States dedicated to finding and advocating for highly effective opportunities to improve animal welfare. Their main activities are charity evaluation research, fundraising for other charities and increasing awareness of animal welfare causes.

The regranted relationship with Animal Charity Evaluators was terminated during this fiscal year as it was no longer required.

Effective Altruism Foundation

The Effective Altruism Foundation (<https://ea-foundation.org>) is a Swiss foundation (operating in the UK and mainland Europe) that promotes effective giving, enabling donors from Germany, Switzerland, and the Netherlands to simply and safely support effective charities all over the world; it also undertakes academic research into the most effective ways to reduce suffering in the world.

The regranted relationship with Effective Altruism Foundation was terminated during this fiscal year as it was no longer required.

One for the World

One for the World asks people to give at least 1% of their income to highly effective charities. Founded at Wharton in 2014, it now has over 700 members across the US, Canada and Australia and over 20 chapters including Wharton MBA, Penn Law, Penn Undergrad, Harvard Business School and MIT Sloan MBA.

Effective Altruism UK is One For The World's partner in the UK and regrants funds to One For The World that have been restricted for that purpose. Funds sent to One For The World are restricted to covering One For The World's operating costs, in line with Effective Altruism UK's charitable objects.

The regranted relationship with One For The World was initiated during this fiscal year.

Additional details of objectives and activities

Contribution made by volunteers

The Charity benefits from significant contributions of time by approximately 25 individuals, including but not limited to being a trustee or leading a sub-community. The Charity also encourages individuals to contribute time to other charities and projects if it is likely they will have more impact that way.

Achievements and performance

Effective Altruism London

In February 2021, Effective Altruism UK conducted a detailed impact assessment of the impact of Effective Altruism London in the 2019 and 2020 calendar years. During this period, Effective Altruism London spent £72k. Using a bottom-up methodology looking at each major beneficiary on a case by case basis, Effective Altruism UK believes benefits of approximately £135k were created, i.e. 1.9x the amount spent¹. There are always going to be significant uncertainties with an analysis. However, by taking a conservative approach in calculating the benefits, the Trustees have relative confidence that benefits outweigh costs and took the decision to continue the activities of Effective Altruism London.

Effective Altruism for Christians

Effective Altruism for Christians is a new project and Effective Altruism UK has not conducted any kind of impact assessment up to this point.

Regranting

Rethink Charity

During the 2019/20 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK did not regrant any money to the Rethink Charity nor provide staff or volunteer time.

Animal Charity Evaluators

Effective Altruism UK made a grant of £44.25 to Animal Charity Evaluators in March 2021, supporting the expansion of its activities and operations, which align closely to the charitable objectives of Effective Altruism UK. We expect this to be the last payment to Animal Charity Evaluators.

Effective Altruism Foundation

During the 2019/20 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK did not regrant any money to the Effective Altruism Foundation nor provide staff or volunteer time.

One For The World

During the 2019/20 fiscal year, Effective Altruism UK regranted a total of £10,650.70 to One For The World. One For The World uses the money to fund its operations. During the year, One For The World has expanded its operations into the UK and also started to diversify into corporate advocacy.

¹ Given the analysis involves significant use of personal data (in some cases sensitive), this analysis has not been published, even at an aggregate level, by Effective Altruism UK.

Financial Review

Policy on reserves

Effective Altruism UK aims to hold enough reserves for:

- Between 2 and 6 months of expenditure - Effective Altruism London
- At least 1 month of expenditure - Effective Altruism for Christians
- Zero - Regranting

The trustees believe that this is an appropriate policy, having taken into account the lack of contingent liabilities, the quality of support from funders, lack of financial risks such as currency risk, the lack of other risk sources such as a defined benefit pension scheme, and the trustees' risk appetite.

As at 31st March 2020, the Unrestricted cash balance was £32,978.35, equivalent to approximately 9.1 months of budgeted FY22 Effective Altruism London expenditure. This is higher than the target band in our policy due to unexpected income during the previous fiscal years. The Trustees have taken action to address this, primarily by reducing the level of grant applied for from the Centre for Effective Altruism.

As at 31st March 2020, the Effective Altruism for Christians cash balance was £10,213.86 with a further £1,750.00 owed to Effective Altruism UK by HMRC in Gift Aid. In total this is equivalent to 4.0 months of budgeted FY22 Effective Altruism for Christians expenditure. This is above the minimum level.

Funds materially in deficit

No funds are materially in deficit.

Further financial review details regarding fundraising

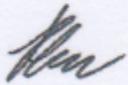

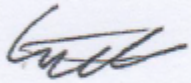

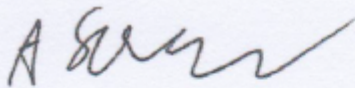

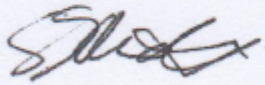

All of the funds raised for Effective Altruism London before 1st January 2019 came from the local London philanthropic community. Largely this was people who had attended our events or who had found the content useful and inspiring and helpful for them to become better philanthropists and who wanted to help give back so more people can be supported. Since the 1st of January 2019, Effective Altruism UK has received funding from the Centre for Effective Altruism to continue its work inspiring and helping people become better philanthropists. Between 1st January 2021 and 31st March 2021, Effective Altruism UK did not apply for a grant from the Centre for Effective Altruism and instead funded expenditure out of reserves, which were above the desired level.

All of the earmarked funds raised by Effective Altruism UK for Effective Altruism for Christians and Regranting were raised by those projects / other organisations putting donors in touch with Effective Altruism UK.

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's

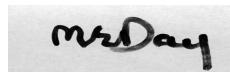

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
