Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	As set out in ICOARM's Constitution, apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The charity's objects are:

1. To relieve the poverty or sickness of refugees and migrants anywhere in the world and to advance their education, through the provision of aid in particular but not exclusively through:
 - Emergency Relief: Develop and run emergency programmes with a focus in nutrition, health, water and food security
 - Empowerment: Organise and implement programmes which seek to restore human dignity and uphold basic human rights.
 - Advocacy: Address the underlying causes of human rights violations by engaging in case advocacy, system advocacy and policy advocacy.
2. To promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) of migrants and refugees throughout the world by all or any of the following means:
 - Monitor abuses of human rights;
 - Relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse;
 - Research into human rights issues;
 - Raising awareness of human rights issues;
 - Promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations;
 - International advocacy of human rights;
 - Eliminating infringements of human rights

In furtherance of that object but not otherwise, the trustees shall have power to engage in political activity provided that the trustees are satisfied that the proposed activities will further the purposes of the charity to an extent justified by the resources committed and the activity is not the dominant means by which the charity carried out its objects.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

* The charity was dormant during the reporting period of 17/12/2023 to 16/12/2024

The trustees have conducted public fundraisings in expanding the fiscal capacity of ICOARM. We held an art fundraiser, a charity clothing sale in Toronto, a charitable fashion show in London, as well as using Gofundme platform online to raise money for our planned transportation project between May – October 2017.

Led by trustees in observation of the statutory laws and regulations of the European Union and Greece. We set up a transportation programme in Elefsina camp, Athens, Greece. The programme provided crucial transportation to the refugee community, aimed at facilitating social integration and language workshops. The decision that led the trustees to setting up this project is by evaluation of the refugees' need on the ground, as Elefsina camp is located on the outskirts of Athens, with no direct access to public transportation to engage with a wider Greek community at large.

The transportation programme was able to improve the overall quality of life of the refugee communities, empowered refugee members by enabling them to attend language classes and conduct leisure activities in the city centre of Athens. In general, ICOARM's initiative increased social interaction and fostered inter-community understanding between the refugees and the local Greek population.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Since the completion of our Transportation Project in October 2017, ICOARM has reviewed and amended our reserve policy to designate 30% of the funds towards our restricted reserve. This is intended to expand ICOARM's capacity to withstand shock and to ensure the longevity of the charity. Although, at the same time, we have not held further fundraisers since the passing of new amendment on ICOARM's reserve policy.

Led by trustees in observation of the statutory laws and regulations of the European Union and Greece. We set up a transportation programme in Elefsina camp, Athens, Greece. The programme provided crucial transportation to the refugee community, aimed at facilitating social integration and language workshops. The decision that led the trustees to setting up this project is by evaluation of the refugees' need on the ground, as Elefsina camp is located on the outskirts of Athens, with no direct access to public transportation to engage with a wider Greek community at large.

The transportation programme was able to improve the overall quality of life of the refugee communities, empowered refugee members by enabling them to attend language classes and conduct leisure activities in the city centre of Athens. In general, ICOARM's initiative increased social interaction and fostered inter-community understanding between the refugees and the local Greek population.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Since the completion of our Transportation Project in October 2017, ICOARM has reviewed and amended our reserve policy to designate 30% of the funds towards our restricted reserve. This is intended to expand ICOARM's capacity to withstand shock and to ensure the longevity of the charity. Although, at the same time, we have not held further fundraisers since the passing of new amendment on ICOARM's reserve policy.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The charity's objects are:

1. To relieve the poverty or sickness of refugees and migrants anywhere in the world and to advance their education, through the provision of aid in particular but not exclusively through:
 - Emergency Relief: Develop and run emergency programmes with a focus in nutrition, health, water and food security
 - Empowerment: Organise and implement programmes which seek to restore human dignity and uphold basic human rights.
 - Advocacy: Address the underlying causes of human rights violations by engaging in case advocacy, system advocacy and policy advocacy.
2. To promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) of migrants and refugees throughout the world by all or any of the following means:
 - Monitor abuses of human rights;
 - Relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse;
 - Research into human rights issues;
 - Raising awareness of human rights issues;
 - Promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations;
 - International advocacy of human rights;
 - Eliminating infringements of human rights

In furtherance of that object but not otherwise, the trustees shall have power to engage in political activity provided that the trustees are satisfied that the proposed activities will further the purposes of the charity to an extent justified by the resources committed and the activity is not the dominant means by which the charity carried out its objects.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees have conducted public fundraisings in expanding the fiscal capacity of ICOARM. We held an art fundraiser, a charity clothing sale in Toronto, a charitable fashion show in London, as well as using Gofundme platform online to raise money for our planned transportation project between May – October 2017.

Led by trustees in observation of the statutory laws and regulations of the European Union and Greece. We set up a transportation programme in Elefsina camp, Athens, Greece. The programme provided crucial transportation to the refugee community, aimed at facilitating social integration and language workshops.
