Docklands Community Organisation (DCO) is a registered charitable organisation and its strap line slogan is "Towards a Progressive Community". Docklands Community Organisation (DCO) Cultural and Education Centre is a volunteer-run community centre, which provides a safe and welcoming space for Muslims and non-Muslims in the Docklands area of Tower Hamlets. The centre provides classes and activities for all sections of the local community, providing a space for relationships to be built between generations. As such DCO plays an integral role in making the neighbourhood a safer place to live and work for local residents. DCO caters for all ages and reaches out to the wider community, particularly 'hard to reach' group i.e. BAME (Black and Minority Ethnic) Women and Teenagers and empower them so that they can be enriched.

DCO was established by a group of local residents of Millwall in 2013, who transformed a set of abandoned porta-cabins and derelict sites at 111-113 Mellish Street to a vibrant Community Centre and a Community Garden, as a result regenerating the site and its community neighbourhood.

Two Lockdowns and later limited services has affected our programmes hence our income. It was an extremely challenging time for us. However, our staff and volunteers reached out to the local community particularly most needy and vulnerable i.e elders and distributed foods and medicines throughout the pandemic.

Docklands Community Organisation (DCO) acquired 111-113 Mellish Street site from Tower Hamlets Council in 2013. Followed by an extensive internal and external remedial work the building became operational in the beginning of 2014, primarily as a result of volunteers and community financial help and support. With one objective, reaching out to the wider community particularly 'hard to reach', disadvantaged, marginalised and low economical background groups.

The Statements of Financial Activities shows a net deficit of £1435 with net fund of £13,689 as at 28 February 2021. £15,124 as on 28 February 2020.

Directors / Trustees' Responsibilities:

The trustees (who are also directors of Docklands Community Organisation for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

1. select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
2. observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP2015 (FRS 102);
3. make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
4. state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
5. prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- * there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditor is unaware;
and
- * the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditor is aware of that information

REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT EXAMINER TO THE DIRECTORS / TRUSTEES OF

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 28 February 2021 which are set out on pages 9 to 11 and have been prepared on the basis of accounting policies set out on page 12, records and from information and explanations you have given us."

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:

* to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and

* to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accountant to be reached.
