

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 8/12/19

Period start date

To 7/12/20

Period end date

Charity name: Vilajeti Christian Ministries

Charity registration number:1171793

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	Advancement of the Christian faith in Albania and the surrounding region particularly through the Albanian Christian Centre in Tirana. To provide financial support for the New Beginnings Children's Home in Tirana
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The leaders in the Albanian Christian Centre have assisted churches elsewhere in Albania, particularly this year in Librazhd, to reach out to their communities. The main pastor of the centre, Paulin Vilajeti, who is personally known to many in the UK (some for 30 years), is regularly invited to appear on Albanian National TV to discuss matters of faith. There is no Government funding for the churches or for the Children's home. The original church is now mainly self-sufficient but church plant in Librazhd is not yet self sufficient. The home is always in need of funds. Some of the children in the home have now left for either college or employment but most have remained connected to the church where they take an active role. The spaces left by them have been filled by other needy children. The home is overseen daily by Paulin and his wife, Luli, and is visited by some of the trustees. Derek Vere is usually able to visit three times per year.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on Public benefit

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	We are all delighted when the church expands its outreach and have been particularly so this past year in seeing the young adults/ teenagers taking leading roles when their schooling allows. Those children who have left the children's Home have continued to be involved with the church activities. The corona virus has had a large impact on the work in Albania, particularly on the children's home where the children had to work online resulting in unexpected extra costs. (Laptop computers etc.) The churches are managing with a mix of on-line and actual services.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	It is the charity's policy to limit the amount of inactive funds held in the UK so, although the funds are not in deficit, the amounts held here are limited.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	None (or very little)
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	See above
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	None
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	There are no obvious concerns

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The principal sources of funding are from churches and individuals who know of the work. These are mostly from regular donors. Where possible Paulin Vilajeti and his wife and daughter are invited to the UK and the visit tends to attract more funding.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	There are no financial investments.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The largest risk to the charity would be if all donations stopped.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 07/12/2020

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

~~The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]. Delete [] if not applicable.~~

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below *~~) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect,:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

* Please delete the words in the brackets if they do not apply.
