How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CHARITABLE INCORPORATED ORGANISATION (CIO)
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	ELECTED BY MEMBERS

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

All Trustees give their time voluntarily and can receive reasonable expenses incurred in the course of their duties but do not receive any remuneration. Trustees generally do not to claim expenses. Or, if they do, they donate back all or part of the amounts claimed. There have been no related party transactions in the year.

During the year we lost the services of Shail Patel who stepped down as a Trustee. He was a founder member of DMS and an invaluable part of the board team. We are glad that he remains a Member of the Society. Subsequently the Board welcomed Chiyoko Szlavnic and James Mills as new Trustees.

The Dhrupad Music Society (DMS) is a member of Making Music through which it has access to training resources, policies, and various insurances.

DMS has a membership of 84. Members elect the Board of Trustees each year at the AGM. Any adult can become a member on application so long as they are committed to upholding the constitution and values of DMS and have a genuine interest in Dhrupad music.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

(a) To advance, improve, develop and maintain public education in, and appreciation of, the art and science of music in all its aspects by any means the trustees see fit, including through the presentation of public concerts and recitals.

(b) To advance the education of the general public in the history, heritage, theory and performance of Dhrupad Music and Indian Classical Music in general.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

DMS has no staff or premises but relies on the voluntary effort of Trustees and, where relevant, any resources from partnerships with other established organisations.

In devising our programme of activities, we have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. Our events are open to the general public, and some are free.

Our main activity is to hold a week-long Dhrupad workshop or residential summer school once a year. When possible, this is supplemented with other events such as lecture demonstrations and chamber concerts. We also assist younger performers to hold workshops and chamber concerts.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Society's main activity of holding a Dhrupad vocal residential summer school could not be held due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

However, we were in a good position to pilot, and then roll-out, a series of online Dhrupad courses led by Pt. Uday Bhawalkar, variously assisted by his senior students, Kirit Singh, Chintan Upadhyay, Prassanna Vishwanathan and Meghana Sardar.

The pilot was followed by four courses held during the financial year. Over 100 participants attended. The online format allowed for more people to participate from all over the world at an affordable cost. And we were able to provide more support to the artists thereby.

Online teaching has its advantages but nothing can replace the traditional in-person transmission of musical teaching to which we look forward to re-instating when circumstances allow. To keep it accessible and affordable, we may consider a 'hybrid' event with live teaching sessions being available on video for others to follow.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

DMS currently has £7,039 in unrestricted reserves. Reserves are presently maintained as a risk-buffer and for cash-flow management. Our aim is to grow that to between £5-10k for these purposes, and to be able to provide match funding in grant applications that we may choose to make in future.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not applicable.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

We aim to maintain high standards of financial prudence and ethics. The Treasurer has some financial qualifications and experience. We also have a qualified Management Accountant, and a Financial Analyst & Internal Auditor, amongst the Trustees.

Our turnover is below the threshold for external Examination or Audit. Income is sourced from charges for events, which are kept reasonable and affordable; and donations from companies and individuals. Some donations qualify for Gift Aid. DMS is registered with the HMRC for this purpose.

We have a prudent financial strategy to ensure each event covers its costs and makes a small contribution to the overall surplus.
