Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO. Every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- (a) to advance the education and protection of the citizens of the United Kingdom in the area of personal cyber security, in particular but not exclusively by training, research and the development of individual capabilities, competences, skills and understanding, paying particular attention to those most at risk.
- (b) to advance such charitable purposes (according to the law of England & Wales) as the trustees see fit from time to time.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In March 2017 The Cyber Trust was created to help those vulnerable become safer online and more aware of how they may become targets for cyber attacks or manipulation. Initially, we worked in Gloucestershire and undertook face-to-face sessions with pupils in both public and private schools. These sessions were well received and were independently assessed, with positive results. However, demands for the sessions grew exponentially and the trustees decided to develop an app for Android, iPhone and iPad devices. Known as 'SpeakOut!', the app now increasingly covers a range of relevant subjects, specifically for pupils transitioning from primary to secondary age. This age range was selected because this point of transition was seen to be a critical time in the development of young people.

It was a principle of our work that any resources for schools and young people should be free at the point of delivery. This is because many schools, which should benefit from using such an app, experience difficulties in raising funds for such learning, although it is recognised as essential.

The Cyber Trust has worked collaboratively with various partners including schools, youth groups, statutory and business organisations, and with a group of research students at the University of Gloucestershire to develop a prototype app, available on the Apple and Android App stores on the theme of bullying.

Our approach has been driven by rigorous evaluation and the app has been trialled with young people in school and youth group settings and has been well received. In fact, many pupils commented that they liked the innovative approach and did not have experience of any other such material.

Significantly we have been surprised by the quality of the personal comments and by the issues raised about the young people's mental health and emotional fragility.

We have also concluded that the app would best be used in a classroom/group setting and that a 'Teacher's Pack' should accompany the app for use by facilitators.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Following the initial development phase (increasing the range of storylines to cover other topics in partnership with Gloucestershire schools, youth groups and agencies), we sought to continue development of the app to cover a wide range of topics which would have relevance for other age groups. We also looked to increase the reach of the app, beyond Gloucestershire, to schools throughout the country and internationally.

Future topics will deal with cyber risks in three main areas:

1. threats to the individual – child online protection and internet safety, covering such issues as hate crime, in-game threats and identity theft;
2. threats to family - communities and democracy, dealing with extremism, fake news and social engineering; and
3. legal and ethics issues - covering digital forensics, social media, data security and encryption, and artificial intelligence.

The challenges faced by young people are complex and the threats are ever growing. So, finding new ways to inform young people and prepare them for what they might face in the future is essential, as is our aim to put a safety device into their hands, on their own mobile device.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity has a small surplus fund. We are organising fundraising appeals and actively encouraging trustees to seek donations to raise the profile of the charity and continue its objectives. We are also in discussions in connection with corporate sponsorship.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2023.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

2.2 INCOME

This standard list of accounting policies has been applied by the charity except for those ticked "No" or "N/a". Where a different or additional policy has been adopted then this is detailed in the box below.

Recognition of income	These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when: - the charity becomes entitled to the resources; - it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources; and - the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.	<table> <tr> <th>Yes</th><th>No</th><th>N/a</th></tr> <tr> <td>☐</td><td></td><td></td></tr> </table>	Yes	No	N/a	☐

Grants and donations	Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS102 SORP).	<table> <tr> <th>Yes</th><th>No</th><th>N/a</th></tr> <tr> <td>☐</td><td></td><td></td></tr> </table>	Yes	No	N/a	☐

Legacies	In the case of performance related grants, income must only be recognised to the extent that the charity has provided the specified goods or services as entitlement to the grant only occurs when the performance related conditions are met (5.16 FRS 102 SORP). Legacies are included in the SoFA when receipt is probable, that is, when there has been grant of probate, the executors have established that there are sufficient assets in the estate and any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.	<table> <tr> <th>Yes</th><th>No</th><th>N/a</th></tr> <tr> <td></td><td></td><td>☐</td></tr> </table>	Yes	No	N/a			☐

Tax reclaims on donations and gifts	Gift Aid receivable is included in income when there is a valid declaration from the donor. Any Gift Aid amount recovered on a donation is considered to be part of that gift and is treated as an addition to the same fund as the initial donation unless the donor or the terms of the appeal have specified otherwise.	<table> <tr> <th>Yes</th><th>No</th><th>N/a</th></tr> <tr> <td>☐</td><td></td><td></td></tr> </table>	Yes	No	N/a	☐

Donated goods	Donated goods are measured at fair value (the amount for which the asset could be exchanged) unless impractical to do so. The cost of any stock of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those gifts at the time of their receipt and they are recognised on receipt. In the reporting period in which the stocks are distributed, they are recognised as an expense at the carrying amount of the stocks at distribution.	<table> <tr> <th>Yes</th><th>No</th><th>N/a</th></tr> <tr> <td></td><td></td><td>☐</td></tr> </table>	Yes	No	N/a			☐

	Donated goods for resale are measured at fair value on initial recognition, which is the expected proceeds from sale less the expected costs of sale, and recognised in 'Income from other trading activities' with the corresponding stock recognised in the balance sheet. The Cyber Trust

On accounts for the period ended

Charity no

Set out on pages

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2023.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
