FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Period start date: 01/04/2021

Period end date: 31/03/2022

Charity name: Friends of SEND

Charity number: 1171892

Objectives and Activities
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	The objects of 'Friends of SEND' are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The advancement of education of the pupils at SEND to Learn Nursery by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities to enable the growth and development of the children within the setting. • To provide training (including vocational training and life-long learning) in the form of community education by delivering workshops, courses, parent groups, networking events, and parental support to SEND to Learn Nursery families and the wider community in the Northumberland and Tyneside areas. • The relief of those in need, by reason of disability through the provision of specialist advice, equipment and providing access for disabled children via SEND to Learn Nursery. • The relief of those in need by reason of disability by raising awareness within the local and wider community of the issues they face and how they can be supported. This means to promote, sustain and increase individual and collective knowledge and understanding of disability awareness. The development of individual capabilities, competences, skills and understanding of parents, carers, families and children within the SEND to Learn Nursery setting by providing exceptional inclusive nursery education, in a friendly child-centred environment.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts	Friends of SEND continued their parent workshops targeted at those families of children with additional needs or disabilities, however these have moved to a virtual platform since the COVID 19 pandemic. Friends of SEND have also continued their Family Freebies programme, whereby we receive donations of second-hand clothes, shoes, toys, books, homewares etc, as well as food and toiletries. Once per month we then open this up to the local community to come & take what they need.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance	All trustees have read the guidance issued by the Charity Commission and understand that Friends of SEND must use their funds and influence to support their targeted groups.

issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit Achievements and Performance
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole	Friends of SEND continued their parent workshops targeted at those families of children with additional needs or disabilities, however these moved to a virtual platform since the COVID 19 pandemic. These sessions aim to help signpost families to local services, give guidance and advice on daily challenges, and allow for networking amongst other families in similar situations. Friends of SEND have also continued their Family Freebies programme, whereby we receive donations of second-hand clothes, shoes, toys, books, homewares etc, as well as food and toiletries. Once per month we then open this up to the local community to come & take what they need. Our Family Freebies drop ins have also been used to boost the profile & awareness of SEND to Learn Nursery & Friends of SEND as well as general disability awareness and inclusion within the community.
