Achievements and Performance

This year we have seen the charity thrive within the community. We have been able to support women foundations, greenfield area and to provide food and support to homeless in the kings cross area, Bexley and other surrounding areas in the UK, using the minimal fund the charity has received this year. Support (Financial and Emotional) was provided to many struggling families and individual during the COVID period.

Financial Review

The principal source of is donations from doner supporting the children in Africa for books and school fees. All other income as per events organised to raise funds. Although financial donations are minimal, the charity has received at tremendous amount of donations through clothing, blanket etc, food items, which are distributed both in the UK and abroad.
