

Oxford Bach Soloists
Charitable Incorporated Organisation Trustees' Annual Report
Year ended 31st August 2022

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The CIO was established to promote, maintain, improve and advance the education of the public in the arts, culture, and heritage, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing), the arts of orchestral, choral and other music.

Since the previous Annual Report (and since our founding) there has been no change to the CIO's principal charitable objectives and activities, which are:

1. the organisation and/or presentation of concerts of high educational and artistic merit, conferences, lectures and recordings;
2. the organisation and presentation of concerts and collaborations with schools and other places of education; and
3. by such other means as the Board of Directors shall from time to time determine.

This includes the organisation and promotion of concerts and the facilitation and organisation of other engagements such as workshops, lectures, and recordings in the United Kingdom and abroad. Alongside the core performances, the CIO is committed to providing additional opportunities for professional development and education through complementary projects and mentoring. In furtherance of these objectives the CIO engages international singers and instrumentalists, artists, performers and répétiteurs; additionally, the CIO engages skilled professional and technical advisers such as language and vocal coaches, musicologists, historians, and keyboard technicians.

The Trustees have reviewed the Charity's objectives and activities and acknowledged that they have paid due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission as noted in Section 4 of the Charities Act 2011. The CIO fulfilled its objectives by presenting 37 concerts and other performances. The Choral Scholarship scheme was in place for this period, and eight scholarships were offered between September 2021 and August 2022. The Trustees express the objectives in a 'Mission Statement' and monitor its activities/initiatives against this.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

From 1st September 2021 to 31st August 2022, the Oxford Bach Soloists gave 23 concerts to a total of 2781 audience members. They also took part in 14 workshops and masterclasses, some of which were open to the public.

The activities were as follows:

Own-promoted Live Performances

- 6 live concerts in New College Chapel, as part of the one-off Brandenburg series. This series was designed for: getting back to live music-making post the pandemic; ensuring there was live music-making in the calendar before the Easter Festival in 2021; providing performance opportunities for newly recruited choral scholars. (October 2021 - March 2022)
- 1 live concert at Edington Priory (dress rehearsal for first Brandenburg concert; October 2021).
- 4 live concerts in New College Chapel, as part of the Easter Festival 2022. These performances celebrated the group reaching the 25% mark in their goal to perform all of J.S. Bach's cantatas in chronological order. (April 2022)
- 2 live concerts of cantatas by J.S. Bach in New College Chapel, as part of the regular concert series. (May 2022; June 2022)

Collaborative Live Performances

- 3 performances at graduations for students at the Saïd Business School. (September 2021; July 2022; August 2022)
- 3 performances of Lutheran Vespers with The Choir of New College, Oxford, providing instrumental accompaniment for their termly cantata, performed in a historically informed Lutheran service. (October 2021; February 2022; May 2022)
- 1 live performance in Christ Church Cathedral as part of the Follow the Stars - Macmillan Carol Concert. (December 2021)
- 1 live performance of B minor Mass in St John the Evangelist Church. The group provided the band and the soloists (who were the choral scholars), and collaborated with singers from choirs in the local area. (July 2022)

Workshops and Masterclasses

- 10 workshops with Dr Pegram Harrison, as part of his teaching for the Saïd Business School and London School of Economics, demonstrating Collaboration and Leadership skills needed in successful music-making. (September 2021 - June 2022)

- 1 masterclass with baritone Roddy Williams for the choral scholars in St Peter's College Chapel. This event was not open to the public. (January 2022)
- 1 Continuo Workshop in New College Chapel, in collaboration with The Betts Fund. This event was for students at the University of Oxford to learn from the group's principal continuo players, and was open to the public. (March 2022)
- 1 masterclass with patron Michael Chance for the choral scholars in St Michael at the North Gate Church. This event was open to the public. (May 2022)
- 1 masterclass with bass Peter Harvey for the choral scholars in St Peter's College Chapel. This event was open to the public. (May 2022)

Private Events

- 1 live performance (rescheduled post the pandemic) in New College Chapel, as a private event to celebrate a landmark birthday. (April 2022)
- 1 live performance as a pre-dinner concert (30mins) for the Oxford Impact Investing Programme. (June 2022)

The Board of Trustees decided to cancel 3 live concerts of cantatas by J.S. Bach in New College Chapel (July & August 2022), due to a delay in major sponsorship funds arriving. If these concerts had gone ahead, it would have left the charity without the funds to pay the musicians and staff, as each of these three concerts were projected to make a loss. This meant that, although the regular concert series restarted in April 2022, it was paused again in July 2022. These delayed funds arrived in September 2022, allowing the charity's musical activity to resume in October 2022. The decision was made that although the charity's regular music-making would continue through 2022-23, the regular concert series would not resume until the charity had raised enough funds to ensure their continuation over a sustained period.

During this period, the Oxford Bach Soloists' network of Friends and sponsors continued to support the organisation. Many continued to renew their memberships despite the lack of concert activity in the previous period. Within this reporting period, the organisation managed to acquire 32 new Friends and supporters, increasing the active base of ongoing memberships to 110.

Continuing to create and distribute content online in this period, and in particular collaborating with other groups online, has been an excellent way of ensuring that we are connecting with our network of sponsors. In May 2022, the group trialled an online platform named 'Digital Concerts', allowing current Friends to access any own-promoted concerts in New College Chapel online. This allows Friends and sponsors who do not live in the local Oxford area to have access to the group's Oxford based music-making.

The Choral Scholarship scheme, which was launched in 2018, was resumed for the academic year 2021-22, after its suspension for the 2020-21 academic year, due to the lack of activity during the pandemic. There were eight scholarships for 2021-22 and these scholarships provide a unique opportunity for young aspiring singers to develop their solo singing within the musical programme of the Oxford Bach Soloists. Choral Scholars are appointed for a single academic year (September to August) and make up the core of the chorus, helping to maintain its musical integrity. Choral Scholars develop their skills by taking on the challenges of step-out solos during concerts and receive one-to-one expert German language coaching as part of their training, as well as extensive one-to-one mentoring from the Artistic Director of Oxford Bach Soloists.

The recruitment cycle for a fourth cohort of Choral Scholars was activated in April 2022, and an increased cohort of ten Choral Scholars were engaged for the academic year starting in September 2022.

The Oxford Bach Soloists' newsletter captures the experiences of the musicians as they journey through the complete vocal works of Johann Sebastian Bach, and is sent out to over 1000 followers every month.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

This was the fifth operating period of the charity. The proceeds from concerts were £99,023 in the 12-month period, compared with costs of £253,766. Some of the shortfall has been covered by general fundraising from Friends (£19,637), and from general donations (£133,513). There is a deficit of £4,659 calculated on a cash basis, which will be covered by income (both donations and concert proceeds) in the next financial period. The Charity secured funding from an individual donor for 2020-21, which allowed significant growth and secured funds to pay musicians. This funding continues and has now been secured for 2022-23.

Proceeds from concerts and general fundraising are higher than the previous period, as relaxing of restrictions since the pandemic allowed for a greater number of concerts. Choral scholarship donations, and general fundraising per month have all decreased since the previous period, as the organisation does not need as much support from individual donors to sustain activity.

Fees paid to musicians increased significantly over the period, whilst the general administration costs decreased. The musicians' fees increased due to the greater number of engagements across the period. Though the spend on salaries was higher during this period, the general administration costs decreased. This is due to fewer administration staff being employed on a freelance basis by the charity, and fewer funds being spent on both marketing and PR consultancy.

At the end of the financial period, the Charity held assets of £46,222. These assets are adequate to provide the charity with working capital and the Trustees do not believe them to be excessive. Work continues to build a strong base of regular donors through the Friends programme and to sponsor the appointment of choral scholars. The charity does not break even on all the concerts which it performs, though it aims to be sustainable over a full 12-month period.

Donated goods for resale are measured at fair value on initial recognition, which is the expected proceeds from sale less the expected costs of sale, and recognised in 'Income from other trading activities' with the corresponding stock recognised in the balance sheet. On its sale the value of stock is charged against 'Income from other trading activities' and the proceeds from sale are also recognised as 'Income from other trading activities'. I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 08 / 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
