Charitable Incorporated Organisation Trustees' Annual Report
Year ended 31st August 2024

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The CIO was established to promote, maintain, improve and advance the education of the public in the arts, culture, and heritage, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing), the arts of orchestral, choral and other music.

Since the previous Annual Report (and since our founding) there has been no change to the CIO's principal charitable objectives and activities, which are:

1. the organisation and/or presentation of concerts of high educational and artistic merit, conferences, lectures and recordings;
2. the organisation and presentation of concerts and collaborations with schools and other places of education; and
3. the organisation and presentation of such other events and performances as the Board of Directors shall from time to time determine.

This includes the organisation and promotion of concerts and the facilitation and organisation of other engagements such as workshops, lectures, and recordings in the United Kingdom and abroad. Alongside the core performances, the CIO is committed to providing additional opportunities for professional development and education through complementary projects and mentoring. In furtherance of these objectives the CIO engages international singers and instrumentalists, artists, performers and répétiteurs; additionally, the CIO engages skilled professional and technical advisers such as language and vocal coaches, musicologists, historians, and keyboard technicians.

The Trustees have reviewed the Charity's objectives and activities and acknowledged that they have paid due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission as noted in Section 4 of the Charities Act 2011. The CIO fulfilled its objectives by presenting 51 concerts and other performances. The Choral Scholarship scheme was in place for this period, and eight full scholarships and two half scholarships were offered between September 2023 and August 2024. The Trustees express the objectives in a 'Mission Statement' and monitor its activities/initiatives against this.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Oxford Bach Soloists
Year ended 31st August 2024

From 1st September 2023 to 31st August 2024, the Oxford Bach Soloists gave 26 concerts to a total of 10,964 audience members (7128 in person, 3836 online). They also took part in 25 workshops and masterclasses. The activities were as follows:

Own-promoted Live Performances

- 6 live concerts, as part of the one-off Partitas series, all of which were in New College Chapel. This series was designed: to provide a platform for the choral scholars to perform together; to provide an opportunity to platform our co-principal keyboardists; and to ensure that the charity had regular monthly concerts between September 2023 and July 2024.
- 1 live concert in New College Chapel, entitled 'Silence in Heaven', to show the charity's recommitment to Bach's cantatas. (October 2023)
- 2 live concerts performing the yearly J.S. Bach's Christmas Oratorio, one in New College Chapel, Oxford, and one in St James's Church, Piccadilly, London. (December 2023 & January 2024).
- 2 live concerts performing the yearly St John Passion, one in Oxford and One in London. (March 2024)

Collaborative Live Performances

- 3 live performances at graduations for students at the Saïd Business School. (September 2023; November 2023; December 2023)
- 2 live performances at Saïd Business School, as part of their Alumni reunion dinners. (September 2023; October 2023)
- 3 live performances of Lutheran Vespers with The Choir of New College, Oxford, providing instrumental accompaniment for their termly cantata, performed in a historically informed Lutheran service. (October 2023; February 2024; June 2024)
- 2 live performances as part of the Follow the Stars - Macmillan Carol Concert, one in Christ Church Cathedral and one in Soho Farmhouse. (December 2023)
- 1 live performance of St John Passion, as part of Edington Arts annual season. (March 2024)
- 2 live performances of Buxtehude's Membra Jesu Nostri, with Neue Vialles and The Choir of Magdalen College, Oxford. One performance in Magdalen College Chapel, Oxford, and one performance in Temple Church, London.

Oxford Bach Soloists
Year ended 31st August 2024

- 2 live performances (one educational performance, and one public performance) of Shall We Gather at the River, in Park Avenue Armory, New York. This project was funded by the Asia Society, and saw a collaboration between Oxford Bach Soloists, Peter Sellars, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, and FLEXN dancers.

Workshops and Masterclasses

- 20 workshops with Dr Pegram Harrison, as part of his teaching for the Saïd Business School, demonstrating Collaboration and Leadership skills needed in successful music-making. (September 2023–July 2024)
- 1 masterclass with German coach Gerhard Gall for the choral scholars in the Holywell Music Room. This event was not open to the public. (September 2023)
- 1 masterclass with mezzo-soprano Catherine Wyn Rogers for the choral scholars in Wadham College Chapel. This event was not open to the public. (February 2024)
- 1 masterclass with bass Alex Ashworth for the choral scholars in the Holywell Music Room. This event was not open to the public. (June 2024)
- 1 masterclass with countertenor William Purefoy for the choral scholars in New College Chapel. This event was not open to the public. (June 2024)

Private Events

- 1 live performance at a Fundraising event for the group. (September 2023)

In contrast to the previous year, the 2023–24 season began from a strong financial position. However, the Board of Trustees made the strategic decision to scale up the charity's musical activity gradually, prioritising financial prudence and long-term sustainability. The six-concert Partitas series, launched in September 2023, formed the backbone of the organisation's own-promoted performances, providing regular monthly concerts in New College Chapel and platforming the charity's Choral Scholars and co-principal keyboardists.

Alongside this, four larger-scale concerts were initially proposed. However, the unexpected withdrawal of a major funder in December 2023, combined with the significant logistical commitment involved in delivering Shall We Gather at the River in New York in May 2024, led the Trustees to revise this plan. Three large-scale concert projects ultimately went ahead: the charity's recommitment to Bach's cantatas with Silence in Heaven (October 2023); the annual Christmas Oratorio performances in Oxford and London (December 2023 and January 2024); and the St John Passion in both cities (March 2024).

The announcement in April 2024 that Artistic Director Tom Hammond-Davies would be relocating to Dallas in July 2024 to take up a full-time post as Director of Music introduced a further challenge. Owing to the timing of his appointment, Friends and supporters were informed just two weeks after the Trustees were notified. This limited the organisation's ability to plan strategically and may have contributed to the drop in membership figures.

Tom Hammond-Davies's departure, after founding the group, marked a significant moment of transition. In August 2024, the Trustees confirmed their intention to proceed with the 2024–25 season, with artistic planning and delivery overseen by the General Manager in collaboration with a group of guest directors. Some of these were being considered for a more permanent appointment; others were long-standing collaborators who understood the ensemble's musical ethos. This approach enabled continuity while offering the flexibility needed during a period of change.

The decision to maintain regular activity was especially important in light of the reinstated Choral Scholarship scheme. With four new scholars appointed in February 2025, and recruitment for a new (overlapping) cohort scheduled to begin in June 2025, the organisation prioritised stable musical leadership to ensure effective mentoring and performance opportunities. Drawing on existing relationships and a strong network of trusted musicians, the Oxford Bach Soloists were able to sustain their core work while positioning the charity for continued growth and long-term planning.

The Choral Scholarship scheme, now in its fifth year, continued to provide an important professional development opportunity for young aspiring singers. For 2023–24, the charity awarded 8 full scholarships and 2 half scholarships. Scholars are appointed for a single academic year and benefit from regular performance opportunities, solo work, and tailored mentorship including language coaching. However, with the uncertainty around leadership and the future of the organisation in early summer 2024, the Trustees made the decision to pause recruitment for the sixth cohort. Following an outpouring of support from audiences, players, and stakeholders, and a significant financial pledge to support the 2024–25 season, the Trustees resolved to continue the organisation's work. Four new scholarships were awarded in February 2025, allowing the charity to re-establish core activity mid-season. Recruitment for a new (overlapping) cohort of scholars for the 2025–26 season will begin in June 2025, ensuring continuity and enabling longer-term planning for the first time since the pandemic.

The Oxford Bach Soloists' network of Friends and supporters continued to offer committed backing during this period. However, the number of active Friends memberships decreased to 118. This may reflect a combination of factors, including uncertainty around the organisation's long-term direction and a strategic decision to move forward cautiously in the wake of the pandemic.

The Trustees hope to appoint a new Artistic Director by July 2025, following careful consideration of candidates who have worked with the ensemble during this transitional year. Feedback from the General Manager, audiences, Friends and supporters, players, and singers is being actively taken into account. The Trustees are especially grateful to Katie Ambrose, General Manager, for her leadership and tireless work in sustaining the ensemble throughout this period. Without her efforts, the continuation of the charity's work would not have been possible.

The Digital Concerts platform remained an important part of the organisation's offering, enabling audiences to access own-promoted concerts remotely. Over the course of the year, 35 Digital Concert subscriptions were active.

The Oxford Bach Soloists' monthly newsletter continued to provide reflections, project news, and behind-the-scenes content to over 1,000 subscribers, and remains a key element of the organisation's outreach and engagement strategy.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

This was the seventh operating period of the charity. The proceeds from concerts were £224,202 in the 12-month period, compared with costs of £280,476. Some of the shortfall has been covered by general fundraising from Friends (£10,204), and from general donations (£8,162). The charity also received restricted donations (£4,700) to complete a particular artistic project. There is a deficit of £33,208 calculated on an accrual basis. The Charity secured funding from an individual donor which started in 2020–21, and which allowed significant growth and secured funds to pay musicians. This funding was terminated in December 2023, and whilst the charity found a temporary solution to fund the 2024–25 season, there is a need to secure a more long-term solution to allow future planning and maintain artistic excellence.

Oxford Bach Soloists

Proceeds from concerts have increased compared to the previous period, due in large part to the expansion of collaborative projects this season — particularly the international venture Shall We Gather at the River in New York. However, general fundraising through gifts and donations has decreased following the loss of a major source of funding in December 2023. Membership income has also declined slightly, reflecting both the departure of the Founding Artistic Director and the necessary shift away from a regular cantata series in the absence of significant financial backing.

Fees paid to musicians increased over the period, as well as general administration costs. The musicians' fees increased due to expanding the number of engagements across the period, and also due to the large-scale project in New York. Though the spend on salaries was slightly lower during this period, the general administration costs increased. This is due to more administration staff being employed on a freelance basis by the charity, and some overtime being needed to complete the collaborative larger-scale projects.

At the end of the financial period, the Charity held assets of £49,009. These assets are adequate to provide the charity with working capital and the Trustees do not believe them to be excessive. Work continues to build a strong base of regular donors through the Friends programme and to sponsor the appointment of choral scholars. The charity does not break even on all the concerts which it performs, though it aims to be sustainable over a full 12-month period.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The Charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation and has memorandum and articles associated with this.

New Trustees are appointed according to the following procedure:

- a) Identifying an area of expertise either useful to the Charity or not present in the existing makeup of the Board.
- b) A process of gathering names.
- c) Names to be discussed at Trustees' meeting
- d) Selected individual(s) to be interviewed in person by two or more Trustees.
- e) Election of a nominated person in a formal meeting of Trustees.

Oxford Bach Soloists
Charitable Incorporated Organisation Trustees' Annual Report
Year ended 31st August 2024

To support the administration of the Charity as it grows, the Charity has:

- a) Continued to engage the services of a professional bookkeeper.
- b) Continued to engage a General Manager working 3 days per week to drive the operational side of the Charity

RESERVES POLICY

Reserves are defined as unrestricted funds that are freely available to spend on any of the charitable purposes of the Charity. Funds such as restricted income funds, the balance of restricted grants, tangible fixed assets and any investment funds are excluded from the reserves. Reserves are held to meet any unexpected spending requirements and unforeseen day-to-day operational costs, any shortfall in income from donations or grants, any delays in receiving grant payments and to fulfil the obligations of the Charity.

The Beneficiaries of the Oxford Bach Soloists are the choral scholars, students, players, conductors and soloists who participate in our performances and the diverse audiences which come to listen and enjoy a unique musical experience. They come to the Charity to be able to take part in performances of a high quality that mirror the diversity of our community. Our historically informed musicianship allows for a lively interplay between committed performance and an immersive experience for the audience. They would all be adversely affected if the Charity was unable to operate and to provide them with these opportunities for performance, participation and support.

The Trustees therefore consider that a suitable policy for this Charity is to hold in reserves the equivalent of a minimum of three months of general operating costs including salary costs. This policy and the level of reserves will be reviewed once a year by the Trustees.

We currently hold £38,086 in unrestricted reserves which is the equivalent of around five months general operating costs for the Charity. We aim to maintain the reserves at the planned level of a minimum of three months of general operating costs by significantly increasing our fundraising activity and identifying suitable donors and organisations from whom general donations for this purpose can be requested. The Trustees and management team are conscious that they are likely to face financial headwinds from time to time, and are focussed on increasing income and closely managing costs. Where possible, funders are urged to contribute to our unrestricted funds to cover our general operating costs, as well as to make restricted contributions towards specific projects. Management is committed to using a portion of general income to maintain the reserves.

Note 2 Accounting policies

2.2 INCOME

This standard list of accounting policies has been applied by the charity except for those ticked "No" or "N/a". Where a different or additional policy has been adopted then this is detailed in the box below.

Recognition of income	These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>the charity becomes entitled to the resources;</li> <li>it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources; and</li> <li>the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.</li> </ul>	<table> <tr><td>Yes</td><td>No</td><td>N/a</td></tr> <tr><td>✓</td><td>✓</td><td>✓</td></tr> </table>	Yes	No	N/a	✓	✓	✓

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/08/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
