INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT for the year ended 30TH JUNE 2025

I report on the accounts of the Company for the year ended 30TH JUNE 2025,

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's Trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under Section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 ("the 2011 Act") and that an independent examination is needed.

The charity's gross income has not exceeded £250,000, and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to an audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5Xb) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission.

An examination includes a review of "the accounting records kept by the company, and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records".

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements a) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 of the Companies Act 2006, and b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met, or
- 2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Signed

Richard Norris

- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- To advance art and to advance education in the works of WB Yeats and the history and heritage of Bedford Park for the benefit of the public by the provision of a public artwork in commemoration of the life and works of the Nobel-prizewinning Irish poet and dramatist WB Yeats.
- To promote the enhancement and improvement of the area of Bedford Park for the public benefit by the provision of a public artwork.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main activity to be undertaken for public benefit is the provision of the artwork as set out in the organisation's objects and the provision, medium term and longer-term, of publicity and educational information associated with the artwork about WB Yeats and the history and heritage of Bedford Park. The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

The advancement of education has been significantly developed in the year 2022-2023 and ongoing.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the yearArtwork & Visitor Experience:

- Artwork now in care and maintenance mode where the project insures and maintains (regular cleaning etc) the artwork pending proposed takeover of care and maintenance by local authority.
- The smartphone tour available free to visitors by clicking on a QR code on the information signage by the artwork will be maintained in perpetuity by St Michael and All Angels Church.

Events/Education:

- The smartphone audio tour continues to attract visitors and we keep the story and the cultural and artistic implications of Yeats's Bedford Park alive with media coverage and involvement with local organisations including Bedford Park Festival, Chiswick Book Festival and Bedford Park Society, and were pleased to be invited to contribute content on Yeats and his literary and artistic circle to the society's 150th anniversary exhibition which was widely viewed at a number of local Chiswick and Bedford Park locations.
- We celebrated Yeats's birthday, as always, with a (12th June 2025) poetry evening at the Yeats family's former parish church, St Michael and All Angels, Bedford Park, on Yeats's birthday with, as special guest, poet, and editor of Irish Nobel-Prize-winner Seamus Heaney's letters, Christopher Reid, plus an in-person guided tour of Yeatsian locations in his Land of Heart's Desire from William Morris's Kelmscott House and the river island which inspired his most famous poem, to the artwork and the various Bedford Park locations which fostered his cultural life and artistic development.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

With a commitment from the local church to host the web-based smartphone application in perpetuity along with the charity's info web-pages and from London Borough of Hounslow to maintain and insure the artwork the charity will have no long-term need of reserves.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None
