REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 JANUARY 2022

The Trustees submit their report together with financial statements for the charity for the year to 31 January 2022. These Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on pages 8 and 9.

The Financial Statements comply with the Charities Act 2011 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The aim of the charity is to enhance knowledge of science, technology and mathematics of students and professionals wherever they exist in the world.

The charity supports material science and its underlying understanding where it benefits mankind by the development of technically significant materials used in engineering and medical applications. The charity makes educational materials available on the internet, it runs courses in material science and sponsors material science research. Where possible, the charity seeks to retain the knowledge of retiring scientists for the benefit of young scientists in training.

The Charity's Constitution provides for a minimum of three trustees who are appointed by the Board. Trustees may put themselves forward for re-appointment at the end of the period in which they serve. The aim of the Board is to appoint trustees with skills and experience from a number of complimentary areas including science, technology, mathematics or charity management. Day to day management of the charity is delegated to the Chair with supervision from the Board of Trustees. The Trustees who have served during the year can be found on page 2.

VOLUNTEERS

TSTC is very grateful to the scientists and others who have given their time to our organised events. They are vital to the educational activities and the aims of the charity.

OBJECTIVES, ACTIVITIES AND FUTURE PLANS

The charity had previously organised workshops aimed at the dissemination of techniques for improving quantification of surfaces by XPS, but all events were cancelled due to the Covid-19 pandemic and the charity has been working to re-establish itself and resume its work.

TSTC had provided an essential not-for-profit forum for developing ideas where there is no commercial pressure. The commercial environment is aimed at manufacturing, selling and marketing equipment that provides answers to scientific questions. A longer-term view is needed to develop improved techniques and ideas to further scientific research.

Events are planned for later in 2022 and 2023. With the current difficult economic climate, it is felt that the charity's work will be more important than before.

The website provides mathematical and scientific information which is freely available all over the world.

FINANCIAL REVIEW AND INVESTMENT POLICY

The charity received income of £630 from service donations.

Direct expenditure incurred in running the charities activities totalled £709.

RESERVES

It is the charities objective to hold sufficient reserves for the next six months of activities.

The total funds of the charity were £3,756 at 31 January 2022, which will be used for activities in the coming period.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks that the charity faces and confirm that systems have been established to enable regular communication to mitigate these risks.

PUBLIC BENEFIT

The trustees confirm they have referred to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities which are shown above in 'Objectives, Activities and Future Plans' above.
