Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of education for the public benefit by providing free secondary education to children in East Africa by working with existing secondary schools to offer scholarships to disadvantaged and vulnerable children.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the 2021 financial year, Kamwenge Scholarship Fund sponsored the secondary education of 21 children (19 children in the prior year) at Equatorial College School, Ibanda.

Underprivileged children benefit from a free education and board which allows them to study when otherwise they would not be able to.

Funds are disbursed via an impact investment firm, Traction Capital, which has offices in Sweden and Uganda.

All trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

n/a

KSF only makes grant payments to one institution - Equatorial College School, Ibanda. This is in line with prior year and its charity articles. KSF does not have any PRIs.

No contributions have been made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Main achievements include the tuition and board for 21 underprivileged children.

Since inception we have supported 33 children to date, of which 13 have already completed school. Of these 13, 9 have gone on to higher education in a mix of academic and vocational courses.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not hold any reserves.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

KSF is not in deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Principal sources of funds include fundraising and monetary gifts from members of the public.

100% of income is expended directly on the school fees for the school children. There are no overheads and trustees to not claim expenses.

KSF does not hold any investments nor does it intend to do so.
