Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Appointed by trustees

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Recruitment and appointment of trustees The existing trustees are responsible collectively for the recruitment of new trustees. We seek to identify people who can provide invaluable operational and management intel for the successful running of the charity. People who have a rapport with and can identify with the local community are sought out and those who have a connection with hard-to-reach communities. We believe this ensures the charity can extend its services to as many as possible. We keep the skills requirements under review. New trustees may be sought by open advertisement or through conversation with candidates in relevant sectors. Potential trustees are invited to attend trustees' meetings and are provided with information about the charity's vision and activities. The candidate's eligibility, competence, specialist knowledge and skills will be given due diligence at a subsequent trustees' meeting.

Induction and training of trustees

Once appointed, new trustees will be given a copy of the constitution and our internal policies and procedures. Further guidance from the Charity Commission are included in the induction package, including 'The essential trustee' and the guidance on 'the advancement of amateur sport, health and education for public benefit' so new trustees are aware of the scope of their responsibilities reflective of the Charities Act.

Risk management

We have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error. We confirm that major risks have been reviewed and management systems have been implemented. The reserves and known subsequent income are appropriate for short to medium term financial requirements.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- 1) The promotion of community participation in healthy recreation, for the benefit of the inhabitants of Yorkshire, by the provision of facilities for playing all sports capable of improving health.
- 2) To promote, for the benefit of the inhabitants of Yorkshire and the surrounding area, the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities, by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship, or social and economic circumstances, or for the public at large in the interests of social welfare, and with the object of improving the condition of life of the said inhabitants.
- 3) To relieve sickness and poor health amongst people living in Yorkshire and the surrounding area, by raising awareness and providing education regarding common health problems, such as obesity and diabetes.
- 4) To help young people, especially but not exclusively through leisure time activities, so as to develop their capabilities that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and members of society.
- 5) To promote social inclusion for the public benefit, by working with people in Yorkshire and the surrounding area who are socially excluded on the grounds of their sex, ethnic origin, belief, or creed and assisting them to integrate into society.
- 6) To establish or secure the establishment of a community centre, and to maintain or manage or cooperate with any statutory authority in the maintenance and management of such a centre, for activities promoted by the charity in furtherance of the above objects.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity carries out a range of sports and activities in pursuant of its charitable aims;

1. A selection of different sports, available on a weekly basis to the community.
2. Weekly Youth Clubs.
3. Holiday clubs and distribution of free meals during school holidays.
4. Personal development courses to train community ambassadors to carry out our objectives in the wider community.
5. Making links in schools and faith-based settings for extra -curricular activities for children and adults.

Trustees give due diligence were required to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission guides pertaining to public benefit and the Charities Act 2011.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity was able to adapt and continue providing services during the COVID19 restrictions. This was achieved by using online tools to host virtual sport and skill sessions to small groups/families and one to one support for those undertaking leadership courses.

The charity pledged to keep people active during the lockdown and to keep participation free of charge.

The charity;

1. Distributed free equipment to 76 families i.e., footballs, tennis equipment and table tennis.
2. Helped 14 young people gain leadership awards.
3. Hosted live sports sessions for children, adults and families.
4. Distributed free meals to 60 children.
5. Enabled 20 children to complete Young Leader awards.
6. Enabled young people to complete British Fencing awards and work towards higher levels.
7. Worked with several other organisations to provide services to the community.

The charity was awarded funding from multiple sources (Bradford Council, JUMP, Sports England, British Fencing) allowing the organisation to continue to provide sporting and development opportunities to the community and to maintain core running costs.

Despite restrictions the charity has continued to grow in its number of beneficiaries.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Reserves policy

The trustees recognise the importance of ensuring that sufficient reserves are retained to maintain adequate working capital to fund operational activity, to provide for unseen circumstances and to invest in the development of the charity. Against a history of uneven income streams, from both statutory and other sources, the trustees aim to maintain reserves equivalent to three months operating costs during the year. The policy to be reviewed before the start of each financial year.
