The Group Works with young people (between the ages of 6 and 18 across all 4 sections within the group). A Child Protection Policy is a requirement of the Scout association POR and is in place at the Group. The Group is committed to safeguarding the welfare of all Members by protecting them from physical, sexual and emotion harm.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The purpose of Scouting is to promote the development of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual, social and spiritual potentials, as individuals, as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international communities.

The Values of Scouting

As Scouts we are guided by these values:

- Integrity - We act with integrity; we are honest, trustworthy and loyal.
- Respect - We have self-respect and respect for others.
- Care - We support others and take care of the world in which we live.
- Belief - We explore our faiths, beliefs and attitudes.
- Co-operation - We make a positive difference; we co-operate with others and make friends.

The Scout Method

The Scout Method provides an enjoyable and attractive scheme of progressive training, based on the Scout Promise and Law, which is guided by adult leadership. In practice the method is best seen when young people, in partnership with adults, are:

- enjoying what they are doing;
- learning by doing;
- participating in varied and progressive activities;
- making choices for themselves;
- taking responsibility for their own actions;
- working in groups;
- taking increasing responsibility for others;
- taking part in activities outdoors;
- sharing in prayer and worship;
- making and living out their Promise.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees have complied with their duty to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the commission in exercising their powers or duties.

The Group has undertaken Scouting activity for the benefit of young people in the Hallow area and surrounding villages to the west of Worcester.

Activities of the Group are reported by the section leaders to trustees in the Executive and Leaders meetings that occur throughout the year.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

None

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Group has continued its activities, and all of the sections within the Group (Beavers, Cubs, Scouts and Explorers) have operated a planned programme of activities to help develop young people in accordance with Scouting principles

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Group looks to use normal subscription income and fees to cover cost of camps to meet day to day running expenses of the Group. In addition, fund raising activity occurs, to build up funds to cover the longer-term maintenance of the Scout Hut.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The total retained reserves of the Group are kept in an interest-bearing bank account. The Group operates a low-risk approach to investments, and funds are held with high street banks. While rates of return are low on such accounts, they meet the low-risk approach of the Group and enable ready access to funds

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of 9th Worcester (Hallow) Scout Council

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the 9th Worcester (Hallow) for the year ended 31/8/23

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the 9th Worcester (Hallow) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the 9th Worcester (Hallow) accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the 9th Worcester (Hallow) as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
