

Annual Report.

The cost-of-living crises has affected the charity's progress and work. Trustees are actively seeking to improve prospects in the next Financial Year. Having said that, we have been blessed with volunteers assisting in keeping the charity's purposes alive.