Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution April 10, 2018
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees are either elected or co-opted except for 3 trustees which are appointed, one by the Parish Council, one by the School and one by the Parochial Church Council.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are to establish and run a village hall and to promote for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Parish of Cold Aston ("area of benefit") without distinction of sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, nationality, race or political, religious or other opinions the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship or social and economic circumstances or for the public at large in the interests of social welfare and with the object of improving the conditions of life of the said inhabitants.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Cold Aston Village Hall organises and promotes regular events which all the inhabitants of the village are invited and welcome to attend. The costs for all events are either by donation or set at a reasonable rate to ensure no one is excluded. The hall is wheelchair accessible.

The hall is also available to hire for all villagers at a reasonable rate and provided to the Church, School and Parish Council for use for a small donation each year.

There are regular weekly classes open to anyone interested.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The trustees all live in Cold Aston and volunteer their time to run the hall. The running of the hall includes taking care of all maintenance issues, catering and organising events, distributing fliers, sending emails, running the 100 Club and promoting events.

The hall is fully insured.

A privacy policy is in place including how compliance with the General Data Protection Requirements is met.

A fire policy is in place and checks are carried out at regular intervals.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Trustees of the hall organised and hosted 7 coffee mornings in the hall and 2 breakfast mornings, a Platinum Jubilee afternoon tea, Curry night, Children's Halloween party, Christmas drinks and canapés, a pottery painting workshop, quiz night, floristry workshop and a street party for the King's coronation with a plant swap.

The hall was used for an upholstery class held once a week.

The Church and the Parish Council both used the hall for meetings.

The school used the hall up to 4 times a week for their PE classes.

The villagers have privately hired the hall for birthday parties and other gatherings.

The 100-club draw continued as normal throughout the reporting period.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Our policy is to keep in reserve sufficient money to cover the yearly running costs of the hall which would keep the hall going if there were no private hires during the year. The reserves is currently set at £6,000. There is a separate Dry Stone Wall fund in which money is set aside to cover the cost of repairing the dry stone walls which are slowly deteriorating. There is currently £8,000 in this fund. We have set aside £7500 for Improvement Projects which are likely to include refurbishment of the toilet block in the future.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Cold Aston Village Hall runs a 100 Club which is an important source of income for the hall. Membership is £5 per month and there are an average of 60 members per year.

Private hire of the hall is an important income source (£2036).

Special events organised by the Trustees contribute a small amount to the income of the hall, but the main objective is to provide a venue for the inhabitants of the village to meet and socialise.
