- Womens Event. It was held online on the theme what role women play in the home. It certainly generated a lot of interest and debate!

We planned our annual church program to meet the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at our trustee meetings.

Activities in the period in question were curtailed because of the introduction of restrictions due to the pandemic. However we were able to do the following:

- Increased attendance to church meetings as most people encourage some form of fellowship due to the pandemic. Some persons we had not seen in a while were able to join our online meetings.
- We organised our annual youth program on initial career decision-making and conference on "Say NO to drugs and gangs. This was online via ZOOM and the attendance was encouraging.

We have four volunteers. Two of the volunteers are trustees and members of the church as well whilst the other 2 are members only.
