Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian faith in such ways and in such parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the Trustees from time to time may think fit

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

We planned our annual church program to meet the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at our trustee meetings.

Activities in the period included:

- ☐ Sunday church service.
- ☐ Weekly online meetings
- ☐ We organised our annual Youth Event. The focus this year was on how young Christians can become relevant in society. It was held entirely online on ZOOM with the youths taking full ownership of the event this time around. It concluded with a summer event held in Burgess Park.
- ☐ Womens Event. It was held online on the theme what role women play in the home. It certainly generated a lot of interest and debate!

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

We have four volunteers. Two of the volunteers are trustees and members of the church as well whilst the other 2 are members only. We value their contributions during the. We appreciate their time, energy and financial contributions toward church activities.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- ☐ policy on grantmaking;
- ☐ policy programme related investment;
- ☐ contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

From the inception of the church, our vision has always been to reach out to the community to influence the Youth and work in partnership with other churches and organisations that share the same ethos.

The church is forging better relationships with other churches and the community to through church outreaches and our popular annual Youth event. This has now been expanded to included women with the hope there will be an event for men in the not too distant future.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity policy is that all incomes or reserves must be paid into the bank unless offerings days falls on Sundays or bank holidays.

There are 2 persons on the rota to count offerings to ensure accountability.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- ☐ the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- ☐ how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- ☐ investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Our main sources of fund this year are offerings from church collections and individual special giving toward a program or conferences. We use these funds to pay rents, Zoom subscription and other expenses namely stationery such as children's reading books and bibles.
