Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	MGL Foundation Trust is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees are appointed by a resolution.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

All trustees give their time voluntary and receive no remuneration or benefits for this time.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the MGL Foundation Trust as described in the constitution are as follows; the prevention or relief or poverty, the advancement of education, the advancement of health and saving lives, the advancement of citizenship or community development, the advancement of arts culture heritage and science, the advancement of amateur sport, the advancement of environmental protection or improvement, relief for those in need by any disadvantage and the promotion of the armed forces of the crown, police, fire, ambulance or rescue services.

In planning our activities for the period we considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at these meetings

The focus of the trustees was to decide how the trust would be funded and to consider requests for help against the stated objects of the trust.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The premises of the Trust are Davison House, Rennys Lane, Co. Durham, DH1 2RS. These premises are provided at no cost to the trust by the MGL Group Limited.

Employees of the MGL Group Limited were asked to consider providing a monthly donation to the trust. All donations given are matched by the MGL Group Limited.

The MGL Group has also committed to, in years of profit, making a further contribution to the Trust. This is at each year end and the contribution will be in addition to the donations referred to above.

Employees may also organise fundraising outside of this which the MGL Group has committed to match.

The trustees met at regular intervals during the period to review the financial position of the trust and to consider any requests for assistance.

During the period, the trust made various donations/awards to requests that were in line with the stated objects of the trust.

Section E
