Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Family Development Foundation promotes and provides educational initiatives and forums to help parents develop their capacities as educators of their children who in turn benefit from a loving respectful family environment that fosters and inculcates freedom. We primarily run courses for couples but also offer a course for single young adults.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the period covered by this report, our operations were concentrated on the following objectives:

1. Worked on the organisation of a workshop that would bring together many initiatives supporting families and parents in the London area, by analysing the content, format, possible speakers, etc.
2. Contacting the different groups to promote the activity, by agreeing on a pitch. Selection of the venue.
3. Efforts to save the contents of the website due to the death of the webmaster (unsuccessful).
4. Decision on the topics to be discussed in the workshop: Smartphones, Mental Health and Social Media, Internet Addictions, Sexual Education, Pressures on Marriages, Schools, Family, Parenting and Marriage education.
5. Workshop finally celebrated on 9 November 2024 with the participation of 30+ persons.
6. Gathering feedback from all participants and making contacts to recruit new volunteers for FDF.
7. Fruit of the volunteer recruitment drive, we welcomed Mary Stacey on 19 January 2025 to join as a volunteer and trustee of the charity.
8. FDF Board Re-Organisation.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Family Development Foundation promotes and provides educational initiatives and forums to help parents develop their capacities as educators of their children who in turn benefit from a loving respectful family environment that fosters and inculcates freedom. We primarily run courses for couples but also offer a course for single young adults.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the period covered by this report, our operations focused on the following objectives:

1. We launched two new courses:
  - "Families for Families" commenced in April 2022. This program was designed to support families in the Croydon area with a simplified format and in collaboration with St. Mary's Church in West Croydon.
  - A customised "Young Love" course began in London in November 2022, combining sessions from the courses: Matrimonial Love 1 and First Steps.
2. A moderators' training course started in June 2022. The aim of this course was to train individuals to deliver high-quality sessions for the courses. The training included both theoretical and practical sessions following the case method study. From this initiative, two new moderators were certified.
3. In July 2022, we held a strategic meeting to reflect on the progress made by FDF to-day and to analyse the feedback received from last year's user satisfaction and quality survey.
4. Additionally, two board members resigned as trustees, and we welcomed one new member volunteer for the charity.
5. Last year, we hired a professional marketing expert to help with course promotion, which increased the course prices. Due to the number of courses launched this year, we could not afford to retain their services. (accounts started the period with a balance of £5,679 and ended the period with £2,142)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

1. policy on grantmaking;
2. policy programme related investment;
3. contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The primary achievement of the charity was the launch of two new courses—slightly fewer than in previous years—and the initiation of moderators' training.

The post-COVID period has proven very challenging, as we are struggling to engage people due to the abundance of available courses and the reluctance of individuals to participate in face-to-face sessions.

Recruiting new volunteers to support FDF at all levels has been difficult, although we did welcome one new trustee to the team in 2022. We must continue our efforts to attract more participants to ensure the continuity of FDF.

Section E

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Family Development Foundation promotes and provides educational initiatives and forums to help parents develop their capacities as educators of their children who in turn benefit from a loving respectful family environment that fosters and inculcates freedom. We primarily run courses for couples but also offer a course for single young adults.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

For the period of this report our operations started with face-to-face versions of the courses (same as pre covid) while keeping some courses online.

Due to fact some courses moved from online to face-to-face and the need to pay for professional marketing support, the course fees were increased.

To help improve the quality of the courses, a quality survey has been designed and sent at the end of each course to all participants.

As in previous years we were able to run our full range of courses. Time and resources have also been spent on launching the new 'Families 4 Families' programme designed to reach out to families in the Croydon area with a simplified format and in collaboration with St. Mary's church in West Croydon.

The Families 4 Families sessions during this period had an average attendance of 5 families.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

1. policy on grantmaking;
2. policy programme related investment;
3. contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The main achievement of the charity was the switch back to face-to-face courses while keeping some of them online and the launch of 'Families 4 Families'.

The number of courses run was in line with previous years

Considerable time and financial resources have been deployed to develop our new initiative 'Families 4 Families'. The first version of this new course started during 2022.

A challenge has been the recruitment of new volunteers to assist FDF at all levels, but one new trustee joined the team during 2022.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not have a policy on reserves, the sums of money that the charity operates with being somewhat modest. Our income is forecast to continue to reduce given the expenses increase due to face-to-face courses and marketing support required.

This year we used some of the income to invest in digital marketing and launch the new course to help reach a different type of participant.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

1. the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
2. how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
3. investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Family Development Foundation promotes and provides educational initiatives and forums to help parents develop their capacities as educators of their children who in turn benefit from a loving respectful family environment that fosters and inculcates freedom. We primarily run courses for couples but also offer a course for single young adults.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

For the period of this report our operations moved to on line version of our courses.

This required a significant investment in training our course facilitators. However, we were now not restricted by geographic location of participants for each course. Any given course could have participants from all over the country. Once operational our expenses to run a course were significantly reduced allowing the course fee to be reduced.

Despite Covid we were able to run our full range of courses. Time and resources have also been spent on a new program 'Families 4 Families' to help us reach and support a new demographic.

We also engaged some professional marketing support to help us become more accessible using digital media.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

1. policy on grantmaking;
2. policy programme related investment;

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The main achievement of the charity was the switch to providing our courses entirely online. This required a significant time investment training our course facilitators. This investment will allow us to offer both face to face and online versions of our courses. The online versions allow people who are not able to attend a course in person the chance to participate.

Whilst the number of people doing courses was less than previous years we were still able to operate our range of courses during the pandemic.

Considerable time and financial resources have been deployed to develop our new initiative 'Families 4 Families'. The hope is that the first version of this new course will pilot during 2022.

A challenge has been the recruitment of new volunteers to assist FDF at all levels with the ongoing pandemic.
