Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Family Development Foundation promotes and provides educational initiatives and forums to help parents develop their capacities as educators of their children who in turn benefit from a loving respectful family environment that fosters and inculcates freedom. We primarily run courses for couples but also offer a course for single young adults.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the period covered by this report, our operations were concentrated on the following objectives:

1. Evaluating the suitability of our existing options and formative offerings to determine if they effectively assist families in overcoming challenges and empower them to lead joyful marriages and family lives.
2. Recruiting individuals from diverse backgrounds and age groups who are willing to contribute to the advancement of the FDF.
3. Promoting the annual congress and international courses offered by the International Federation for Family Development (IFFD).
4. Start preparing the structure and content for Families in the XXI Century Workshop to be held in Nov'24 in London.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

1. policy on grantmaking;
2. policy programme related investment;
3. contribution made by volunteers.

Section D
