and procedures to manage them.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Family Development Foundation promotes and provides educational initiatives and forums to help parents develop their capacities as educators of their children who in turn benefit from a loving respectful family environment that fosters and inculcates freedom. We primarily run courses for couples but also offer a course for single young adults.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the period covered by this report, our operations were concentrated on the following objectives:

1. Worked on the organisation of a workshop that would bring together many initiatives supporting families and parents in the London area, by analysing the content, format, possible speakers, etc.
2. Contacting the different groups to promote the activity, by agreeing on a pitch. Selection of the venue.
3. Efforts to save the contents of the website due to the death of the webmaster (unsuccessful).
4. Decision on the topics to be discussed in the workshop: Smartphones, Mental Health and Social Media, Internet Addictions, Sexual Education, Pressures on Marriages, Schools, Family, Parenting and Marriage education.
5. Workshop finally celebrated on 9 November 2024 with the participation of 30+ persons.
6. Gathering feedback from all participants and making contacts to recruit new volunteers for FDF.
7. Fruit of the volunteer recruitment drive, we welcomed Mary Stacey on 19 January 2025 to join as a volunteer and trustee of the charity.
8. FDF Board Re-Organisation.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:
