- 2) The promotion of community participation in healthy recreation by the provision of facilities and coaching to enable individuals to take part in the sports of

weightlifting and powerlifting.
 3) To undertake research into the effects of exercise on physical and mental health and to publish the useful results of such research for the public benefit.
 For the purposes of this clause “marginalised groups” are defined as groups who fall into the following categories: recovering addicts, survivors of human trafficking and domestic violence, people with eating disorders, people on probation and homeless people.

MBC is embedded within the local community. We draw together service users, services and local expertise to empower marginalised groups to develop life skills and engage in exercise.
 Currently our activity repertoire includes peer led circuit training, strength based training and therapeutic yoga. Our main service users are recovering addicts, survivors of human trafficking and homeless young adults. We recruit our service users through local frontline organisations including Phoenix Futures, Ashiana and Depaul
