Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (e.g. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (e.g. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (e.g. appointed by, elected by)	By appointment of the members

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Regarding relationships with related parties, the church is a member of the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches. This is purely a joining of hearts and minds as opposed to a structural union, the FIEC does not own any of the church's property and neither does it require a membership fee. The church shares the same theological perspective and annually affirms its agreement with the articles of faith.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objective of the charity is for public benefit, the advancement of the Christian faith, in accordance with the Statement of Faith.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main activities fall under the stated objective of advancing the Christian Faith. Specifically, these include:

- Regular meetings for Christian worship
- Children's clubs to enhance the Christian faith
- Support for the public as available (see below in Section D)

As needed, the trustees have met to review the work of the charity as well as to oversee the financial status.

To ensure that the trustees are functioning at their best, the chair (Stan Boelman) took part in a webinar for faith based charities which was hosted by the Charities Commission. In doing so, Stan was pleased to learn that the trustees are working well at their tasks.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The years covered by 2023-24 constituted a few enhancements as well as progress in the area of children's ministry.

First of all, after four years, the church finally began work on a children's club. Because of lockdowns in 2020 and 2021, any kind of children's work became difficult because the church was meeting over Zoom. In the spring of 2024, a team was formed and plans to start in April.

Before that, however, we needed to upgrade our safeguarding policy. The current one had served well but it was not fit for purpose in the modern arena of child safety. After a long process of consultation, a new safeguarding policy is now in place.

Finally, a new ministry was initiated for men. Whilst the church already had a women's online meeting called Servants Hearts, a men's version was started. It is called King's Servants. The object of both ministries is to encourage people to be faithful to God and find direction for life's challenges.

The following continues to be our pattern of ministry:

- On Sunday mornings, the church worships at Ambleside Centre. It is not a large building and doesn't have other rooms for children's work. This is not the best because we are not able to have a separate children's function during the adult worship.
- In the afternoon, the pastor continues to make use of Facebook Live to do sermons for the public. Currently, some 20 to 70 people view the sermons for any length of time and happily, not all of the listeners are Christians. Some are of other faiths and some of no faith at all. We welcome this as part of our ongoing mission to proclaim the Christian faith.
- In the week, a prayer meeting takes place on the Zoom platform.
- A weekly study group also takes place over Zoom and recently the group has read through Billy Graham's book, The Journey.
- The new men's group, King's Servants, has been meeting every two months on Zoom.
- The ladies group, Servants Hearts, continues to meet on Zoom and includes women from other churches not in Luton.
- Much good has been achieved in global Christian work. Our local impact may be small but our global reach can be large.
- Whilst not "regular", the congregation has given an occasional gift to missionaries who are in special circumstances. These might include things such as unexpected health costs. It is to be celebrated that the church has such a wonderful philanthropic spirit.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees and the membership have considered the need for a reserves policy and it has been agreed that no set amount is needed but that the charity will always agree to meet its financial obligations. Apart from the moneys held in the charity's current account, there is an unrestricted fund with a value of £29,329.22 at the start of the new financial year (April, 2023)

Details of any funds materially in deficit

No deficit exists.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity subsists from the donations of its members and other interested parties.

Expenditures supported the objectives via payments for rental costs, literature to Christian work, donations to Christian charities and the support of Christian work in other parts of the world.
