DHAMMAKAYA NORTH UNITED KINGDOM

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2021

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2021. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The purposes of the charity as set out in the governing document, memorandum, and articles of association, is to advance the Buddhist religion and in furtherance of this to promote meditation.

The word "dhammakaya" has the following meaning:

"Dhamma" - refers to the teaching of The Lord Buddha.

"Kaya" - refers to each person's physical body that contains enlightenment.

"Dhamma" and "kaya" are Buddhist terms written in the Pali language.

An explanation of the following is given:

The charities aim is to advance the Buddhist religion. This is done by holding ceremonies that include monks giving Dhamma talks mainly to promote peace and goodness in society. In addition, meditation gives people a clear rested mind aimed at spreading peace and goodness through society.

To adapt under coronavirus difficulties and continue to provide meditation, ceremonies, teaching to supporters and the public. All activities that are normally done face-to-face are all replaced by Zoom and Facebook live if the lockdown policies are imposed. Otherwise, the temple conducts face-to-face activity and open to the public every day.

There are a few significant activities undertaken on Buddhist special days. These include using the green outside the Newcastle Temple for a food offering to the monks and for a parade with music. Several hundred people have attended the ceremony that included a food festival. These have included many people from the local community of several religious traditions not just Buddhist. This year restrict to only 100 people due to the social distancing regulation, as to the venue can accommodate.

The temple organised some significant activities such as Makha Bucha day, Vesak day, Vassa day, that are on lockdown on Zoom and Facebook. There are a significant number of visitors from the Thai community. However, Makha Bucha and Vesak day included a ceremony in English, meditation, and lighting of candles when most visitors were non-Thai from the local community.

The short-term aims are to maintain relationship with present members and regular meditators.

The long-term aims are to create a model Buddhist Temple that can be used as a blueprint for future Temples to follow. The Newcastle Temple has been designed as a model Buddhist Temple that will please both Asian and European people. Thus, all visitors should feel at ease and appreciate the serenity and calm atmosphere.

Significant activities

The main activities undertaken in relation to the purposes of the charity are as follows:

Newcastle Temple activities

The Temple is open to the public 365 days a year if it is not lockdown.

If it is in the lockdown time, following activities would only be available on Zoom and Facebook live. Monks, Temple's staff, and visitors participate in morning and evening chanting followed by meditation. Visitors are made welcome at breakfast and lunch that are followed by a blessing by the Monks. The main ceremony is held on the first Sunday of the month. Annual ceremonies are held for Kathina, Makha Bucha day, Vesak day and other Buddhist special days with invitations made to the local community. Meditation classes are held each week on Wednesday, Sunday, and Thursday.

There is a well-maintained dormitory and washing facilities that are well used. There are good car parking facilities and a green in front of the Temple that is available for ceremonies.

When lockdowns are eased, Monks visit outside organisations to demonstrate meditation. These include schools, public and private organisations.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Public benefit

Public benefit is at the heart of what it means to be a charity. Two key principles define this area:

1. There must be identifiable benefits.
2. The benefits must be to the public.

The trustees must carry out the following:

1. Review the activities undertaken for the public benefit.
2. State whether they have complied with this duty.

The main activities undertaken to further the charities purposes for the public benefit are as follows:

When lockdowns are eased, the Temple at Newcastle is open 365 days of the year with all visitors given a warm welcome. The monks perform morning and evening chanting followed by meditation.

A monthly ceremony is held during the early hours of the first Sunday of every month. This finishes about lunch time and attracts approximately 20 visitors. The ceremony is conducted in Thai and English. During lockdowns, these are done on zoom.

Our method of meditation is simple and non-intrusive, suitable for persons of any faith. Each week meditation classes are held on Wednesday for beginners, and longer meditation with chanting on Thursday.

The Trustees have reviewed the activities undertaken for the public benefit and confirm their compliance with this duty.

Volunteers

When it is possible, volunteers visit the Temple at Newcastle every day of the year to cook food, offer food to monks, help with cleaning and renovation, and help with ceremonies. Volunteers give many hours of their time each week and over the year 10 volunteers helped with cooking. In addition, a further 10 volunteers helped the Temple. The Trustees would like to thank the volunteers for their hard work.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The Newcastle Temple activities during the year included the following:

The Temple is open to the public 365 days of the year, when the time is possible and not affected by the lockdown.

Each day starts with morning chanting and meditation that is followed by a food offering to the monks, breakfast, and a blessing from the monks. Members of the public are given a warm welcome and invited to join Temple's staff and volunteers for breakfast.

Lunch includes a food offering to the monks. Members of the public are welcome to attend and have lunch that is followed by a blessing from the monks.

Evening chanting takes place that is followed by meditation. The public are welcome to attend.

The blessings from the monks are chanted in the traditional Pali Buddhist language.

Meditation classes are held on Wednesday for beginners, and longer meditation with chanting on Thursday.

Buddhist special days are celebrated where visitors receive a blessing from the monks and food is provided free of charge.

The meditation classes attract approximately 20 participants every week.

The first Sunday of the month ceremony starts during the early hours and finishes at lunch time. This attracts approximately 20 people with the dormitory used.

The annual Kathina ceremony during October attracts 100 people, because of the social distancing scheme that was imposed.

Regular events were held at the Temple including:

Event	Participants
Makha Bucha Day (Online)	60
Visaka Puja Day (Online)	60
Weekend Meditation	20
Kathina Ceremony	100
New Year Retreat	5

When possible, visits by Monks, Temple staff and Volunteers were made to Newcastle, Gateshead, Sunderland, Carlisle, North Shields, Keswick, and York to carry our ceremonies with meditation. Each event was attended by between 10 and 25 participants.
