- Designated Safeguarding Lead.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objective of the charity is to advance the education of young people in the subject of sexual consent and the law, in particular but not exclusively by delivering workshops in schools to 11-18 year olds.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity aims to educate young people in the subject of sexual consent and the law (see charitable objective above). The charity carries out its aim through the provision of educational workshops in schools by law post-graduates and legal professional.

The charity has provided consent education to thousands of young people through hundreds of workshops. The charity operates nationwide, working principally in London and the North West. The charity has provided workshops in quasi-educational settings, including festivals and youth clubs.

The charity's purpose is beneficial; its beneficiaries include a sufficient section of the public (school age children).

The trustees confirm that they have paid due regard to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit in relation to the aims of the charity.
