Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Induction of trustees

Pursuant to the charity's constitution, each trustee receives the following on appointment:

- a copy of the constitution
- a copy of the latest annual report
- a copy of the latest statement of accounts

A newly appointed trustee also receives a copy of the Code of Conduct for Trustees.

Organisational structure

The trustee board presently consists of six trustees; the executive team consists of four staff (Director, London Manager, North West Manager, Communications Director).

Trustees' consideration of major risks

The charity's principle risk relates to safeguarding. Steps taken to manage this risk include:

- DBS checks on all volunteers;
- Rigorous training and recruitment process;
- Disclosure and safeguarding policy and procedures;
- Disclosure and safeguarding training for all staff;
- Designated Safeguarding Lead
- Designated Safeguarding Trustee

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objective of the charity is to advance the education of young people in the subject of sexual consent and the law, in particular but not exclusively by delivering workshops in schools to 11-18 year olds.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity aims to educate young people in the subject of sexual consent and the law (see charitable objective above). The charity carries out its aim through the provision of educational workshops in schools by law post-graduates and legal professional.

For the period identified above, the charity has provided consent education to thousands of young people through hundreds of workshops. The charity continues to operate nationwide, working principally in London and the North West.

The charity's purpose is beneficial; its beneficiaries include a sufficient section of the public (school age children).

The trustees confirm that they have paid due regard to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit in relation to the aims of the charity.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- Significantly increased number of workshops delivered in schools
- Significant increase in income over the last year due to increased delivery of workshops
- Continued press coverage and media opportunities
- Expansion of charity at every level: volunteer pool, executive level and trustee board.

Section E
