Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The promotion of religious harmony for the benefit of the public, particularly but not exclusively young people, by: (a) educating the public in different religious beliefs, including an awareness of their distinctive features and their common ground (b) promoting knowledge and mutual understanding and respect of the beliefs and practices of different religious faiths.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects, or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Our work to meet the requirements of the public benefit guidance consisted of providing and disseminating information in the form of books, articles, and the Internet. Our main activities included: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Further work on the New Genesis Foundation website, which is used to promote knowledge of different beliefs.<ol style="list-style-type: none">a) Adding articles to the website, which a volunteer did.2. Further working on the Polish translation of a new book, "In Search of the Unknown." This book will provide information on the development of the hypotheses proposed in other books published by the New Genesis Foundation.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees are aware of the public benefits guidance, and their actions comply with this guidance. We provide information to the general public that offers a new approach to the issues of genesis covered by different beliefs. This new understanding should provide common grounds for discussion and reduce tension caused by various interpretations of Genesis. The trustees ensure this information is available to everybody free of charge.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity website has been expanded to help disseminate information to the wider public. This information is provided free of charge. The beneficiaries will learn about different approaches to controversial issues, such as the origin of life. This should help them understand the scientific perspective on this topic and familiarise them with other approaches to this issue. A new book, "In Search of the Unknown," has been translated into Polish.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the financial period, we have ample funds (£1438) to continue our activities in the next year.
