Trustees' Report for the year ended 31 March 2022

The Trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2022. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity's trust deed, Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective from 1 January 2019), and with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts.

The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102.

Objectives and activities

The Charity is established for the public benefit, with the objective to advance the Christian religion, to advance education through the provision of facilities for education, to provide financial support to the needy, the relief of those in need and the relief of sickness by assisting in the provision of medical services. This done in the United Kingdom and in any other country by such means as the Trustees may determine, including but not limited to the provision of grants and practical support to Charities and other organisations.

It aims to advance such charitable purposes for the public benefit as are exclusively charitable according to the laws of England and Wales, as the Trustees may determine from time to time.

Structure, governance and management

Awe-Inspiring is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation ('CIO') with registration number 1174336 and is constituted under a Constitution dated 22 August 2017. Awe-Inspiring raises funds from the general public, charities and organisations and seeks to apply all its income to the activities as set out in its Constitution, through the careful stewardship of its existing resources and additional contributions received.

The Constitution provides for a minimum of three trustees, with a maximum of twelve. The Trustees have responsibility for the control and administration of all funds of the Charity and it is governed in accordance with its Constitution.

At the Trustees' meetings, the Trustees agree the strategy and areas of activity for the CIO, including considering the making of grants, investments, reserves and risk management policies and performance.

All Trustees give of their time freely and no Trustee remuneration was paid in the year, or in the prior year.

Financial review

The charity has performed well over the year to 31 March 2022, receiving £10,466 (2021: £18,139) in donations as unrestricted reserves and £35,000 (2021: £38,550) in dedicated funds, shown as Restricted Reserves. Total donations received amounted to £45,466 (2021: £56,689), with the gift aid claim and interest income adding another £450 (2021: £976) and £18 (2021: £116) respectively, to the reserves. Donations and grants made from unrestricted funds during the current period amounted to £7,788 (2021: £6,379), and together with governance costs and events expenses, resulting in a net surplus for the period in respect of unrestricted funds of £1,888 (2021: £12,155).

Donations and grants made from restricted funds during the current period amounted to £36,800 (2021: £52,963). The total reserves, consisting of unrestricted reserves of £65,696 (2021: £63,808) and restricted reserves of £35,000 (2021: £36,900), amounted to £100,696 (2021: £100,708), leaving the Charity in a good position to achieve the goals it set itself.

The trustees have complied with the duty in the Charities Act 2011, to have due regard to guidance published by the Charity Commission on public benefit. The grants made by the Charity have all been for activities operated for the benefit of the general public.

Reserves and funds

Reserves consist of all retained income available to the Charity and exclude any restricted funds that the Charity may have. The Charity currently have restricted reserve funds of £35,000 (2021: £36,900). The general and unrestricted reserves of the Charity of £65,696 (2021: £63,808), are considered to be sufficient for the short to medium term.

Investment Powers

The Constitution authorises the trustees to make and hold investments using the general funds of the charity. During last year, some of the available funds not considered to be required for short term activities, were put on a 35-day notice account with the Charity's bank, mainly with the aim to earn interest on the funds held by the Charity. With the uncertain and possible adverse impact of Covid19 on the contributions to the Charity, the significant capital expenditure projects and the very limited interest earned, the Board decided to close the 35-day notice deposit account to ensure that sufficient funds were available for any unforeseen events. The cash balance has materially increased as a result of a contribution that the Charity received at the end of 2021.

Risk management

The Trustees have considered the major risks to which the Charity is exposed and have reviewed those risks and established procedures to manage those risks. Guidance from the Charity Commission and banks are followed. During the last two years, the Charity was subject to its banker's Safeguard Reviews, assessing the Charity's procedures and controls, especially in respect of all grants and transactions with overseas entities and charities.

The Trustees consider the variability of contributions, as well as the dependency on a few high value contributions received over the last three years, to constitute the Charity's major financial risks. The dependency on continuous grants was emphasised by the Covid19 global pandemic which had an almost immediate impact on all charities and the financial support that they receive. The Charity, however, still received significant contributions from loyal supporters, ensuring the continuation of its activities and in maintaining reserves for the future.

Going concern

The Charity's activities, together with the factors likely to affect its future development, its financial position and its exposures to liquidity and cash flow risk are described in this Trustees' Report.

The Charity has sufficient financial resources and reserves to fund its activities for the foreseeable future. As a consequence, the Trustees believe that the Charity is well placed to manage its business risks successfully and will have sufficient time to adjust its activities and contributions in line with any change in contributions.

The Trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Accordingly, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the annual report and accounts.

Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required under the constitution of the charity and under charity law to prepare the trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with FRS102 and the charity SORP (FRS 102). The Trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the financial year and of its surplus or deficit for that period. In doing so, the Trustees are responsible for:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is not appropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Awe-Inspiring

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Awe-Inspiring Charitable Incorporated Organisation (Awe-Inspiring) for the year ended 31 March 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of Awe-Inspiring you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of Awe-Inspiring's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
