Trustee Annual Report for Christ Inspired (Charity No. 1174378)

Christ Inspired

Charity number: 1174378

Reporting period: 07 December 2024 – 06 December 2025

Structure, Governance and Management

Christ Inspired is governed by a Board of Trustees in accordance with its constitution. During the reporting period, the charity was managed by four trustees who were responsible for overseeing all activities, ensuring good governance, and complying with the charity's objectives and legal requirements. The charity also benefited from the support of four volunteers who assisted in carrying out its work.

Objectives and Activities

The charity's purpose is to advance the Christian faith and promote community welfare by showing care and compassion to those in need and by inspiring young people to reach their full potential.

Category 1: Care and Compassion

The charity aims to support people in need through its charitable activities. This includes visitation to the sick in hospitals and to elderly residents in care homes, providing comfort, companionship, and spiritual encouragement.

Category 2: Inspire Network

The Inspire Network seeks to empower young people to fulfil their potential. Activities include, but are not limited to, providing academic support to improve GCSE grades, creating voluntary opportunities, offering mentorship programmes, and organising career and education seminars.

Achievements and Performance

During the period, the charity maintained its commitment to community support and youth development. Although financial activity was limited, the trustees continued to plan and coordinate charitable engagements, build partnerships, and encourage volunteer participation.

The Inspire Network continued to provide opportunities for young people to receive guidance and mentorship, while the Care and Compassion team strengthened outreach to vulnerable members of the community.

Financial Review

For the financial year ending 06 December 2024, the charity reported:

- Total income: £0
- Total expenditure: £84.46

The trustees confirm that no significant financial transactions took place during the period. The charity remains solvent and continues to operate through volunteer efforts and in-kind support. The trustees are satisfied that the charity is managing its limited resources responsibly.

Reserves Policy

Given the current level of financial activity, the charity does not hold any reserves. The trustees will review this policy annually as the charity's income and expenditure increase.

Public Benefit Statement

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty under section 17(5) of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The activities of Christ Inspired are undertaken wholly in pursuit of its charitable objectives and for the benefit of the public.

Plans for the Year Ahead

The charity plans to continue and expand its outreach through hospital and elderly home visits, as well as to develop the Inspire Network's educational and mentoring programmes. Efforts will be made to strengthen partnerships with local schools, churches, and community groups to increase engagement and impact.

Approved by the Board of Trustees on behalf of Christ Inspired

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of CHRIST ASPIRE

This Report is on the christ Inspired Accounts for the year ended 06 Dec 2023

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and the independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 145 of the Charities Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below*):

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

This Report is on the christ Inspired Accounts for the year ended 06 Dec 2020

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an in examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 145 of the Charities Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below*):

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
