Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

We aim to promote compassionate care and Christian responsibility for animals and the wider creation through articles, books, conference attendance and through the media. We provide a public benefit by educating on the empathetic treatment of animals and the wider creation which gives a moral benefit to the human community.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

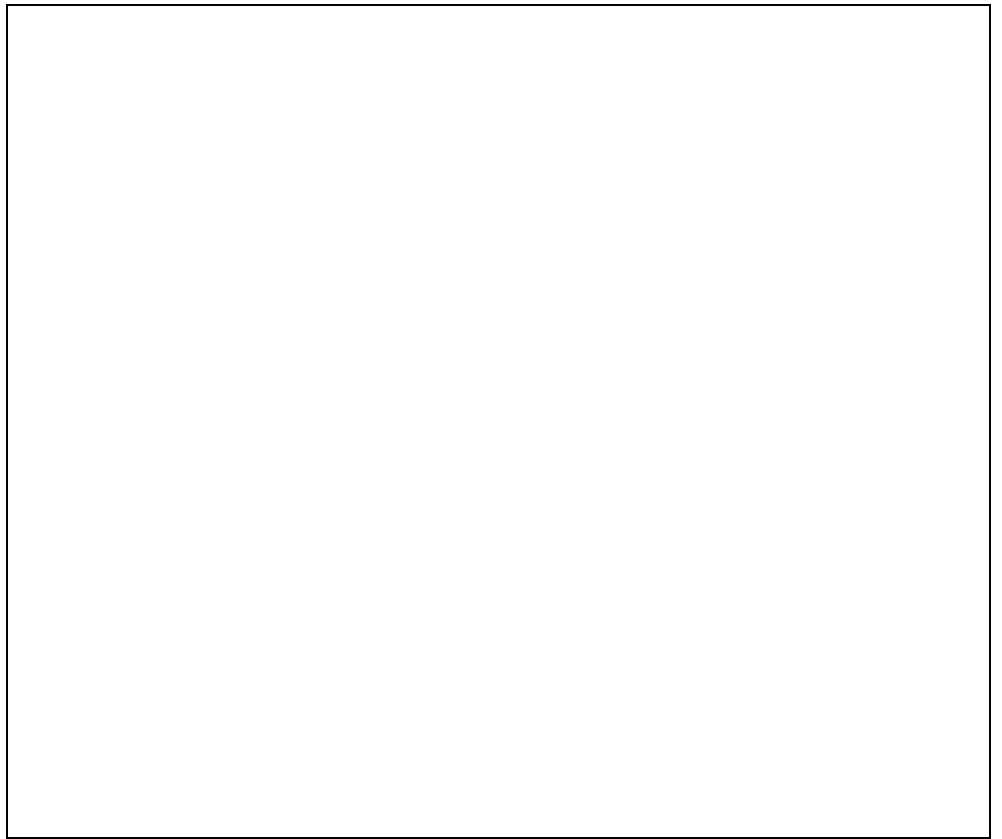

The charity has a Website, a Facebook Group and Page, and a Twitter account, through which contemporary animal and environmental issues are raised and discussed. Articles are published on the website or in journals/books. Whenever financially possible, participation and attendance at conferences is undertaken to promote love and compassion for all of God's creation.

The Trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

A Summary of the main achievements can be found here:

JANUARY

We began the year with the good news that the accomplished Orthodox theologian and philosopher, Nikolaos Asproulis will join Pan Orthodox Concern for Animals as its new Chair, whilst Dr Christina Nellist will remain President and become its new Treasurer, following the death last year of Father Simon Nellist.

Throughout the year we continued to support various petitions and sign letters to government ministers or institutions to increase animal protection and decrease animal suffering. This covers Bills/Acts on a wide range of issues such as the Animals Low Welfare Activities Abroad Act; the banning of animal skins in London Fashion Week; switching from real fur to faux fur for the King's Guard's headwear; calling for the government to ban children from attending hunts; banning the use of harmful pesticides that kill insects and bees; stopping the unnecessary deaths of many horses each year in racing events; banning the Canadian seal hunt; banning greyhound racing; banning the horse-drawn carriages in Mallorca; banning the badger cull in the UK; urging airlines to stop shipping animals to research laboratories, etc.

We also continued to post details, teachings and icons of Orthodox Saints who are known for their kindness and care for animals (Orthodox and non-Orthodox) such as St Seraphim of Sarov; St Brendan; St Isaac the Syrian; St Paul the Hermit; St Ninian; St Gertrude; St. Paisios; St. Luke of Simferopol; St. Hubertus; St Blaise.

We also continued to post details or links to various Reports on aspects of animal protection and climate instability, such as the report on reducing meat and dairy diets, which is, of course, relevant for both issues.

On other occasions we published more detailed work or information of our presentations at various events, such as that of Dr. Nikolaos Asproulis, deputy director of the Volos Academy for Theological Studies and Chair of POCA, who delivered a talk at the conference entitled Together for Europe Workshop Ecology. This was on the ontological interdependence among all creatures of God and the need for Christian theology to reconsider the content of the imago Dei doctrine so as to also include non-human creatures, and his attendance at the latest Halki Summit and topic "Water: Spirit and Science - Exploring Spiritual and Scientific Perspectives", organized by the Ecumenical Patriarchate in cooperation with the Hellenic Open University.

MARCH

In March we began to work on a new book relating to Orthodoxy entitled: CREATION CARE: EASTERN ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVES and this should be published during 2025.

We also began discussions on how we might begin a Newsletter for our followers. One outcome was to invite individuals from different countries to write a paragraph or so, on the situation in their respective countries regarding Animal Protection, including any events, seminars etc on this and related themes, by the church.

MAY

In May, Dr Christina Nellist was invited by the Volos Academy to present a paper at the European Academy of Religion's conference in Sicily, on how farmed animals and the meat and dairy diet, play a significant part in climate instability.

AUGUST

In August Dr Christina was invited by the Oxford Centre for Animal Ethics to give a lecture at Merton College, Oxford, on the work of the great Russian Writer, Philosopher and Theologian, Count Lev Tolstoy. This was entitled 'Ahimsa, Animals and Anarchy', and will be published in a book of collected papers by Palgrave in the coming year.

Dr Christina was also invited to participate in an Interfaith Vegan Panel discussion organised by the Shamayim Jewish Animal Advocacy.

We also answer questions and requests from members of the public from across the world on a range of issues.

We continue to promote Green Parish initiatives and education at Parish level.

In September we were blessed with a new Patron, Met. Serafim Kykotis of Zimbabwe and Angola.

We are also blessed with the inclusion of Dr David Goodin, Professeur Associé at the Université Laval, Institut de Théologie Orthodoxe de Montréal, as the latest member of our team and our Canadian representative.

OCTOBER

In October our President was interviewed on her work and the work of our charity, by the SUPREME MASTER CHING HAI INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION. This will be aired on their television channel in the near future.

At the end of the month Dr Christina attended a two-day Annual Egyptological colloquium at the British Museum, entitled: 'Animal mummies: from beliefs to practice' as part of her ongoing research into this subject.

NOVEMBER

Our President attended the Animals in War Service at the Memorial in Park Lane, London, where she laid a wreath on behalf of Pan Orthodox Concern for Animals and the Animal Interfaith Alliance.

Here is the link to a short article on the service and this year's speech from a member of the NOWZAD TEAM.

ANIMALS IN WAR REMEMBRANCE SERVICE – Pan-Orthodox Concern for Animals

DECEMBER

In November and December much time was given to organising THE PAN ORTHODOX CONCERN FOR ANIMALS' WEBINAR SERIES. Our first Webinar will be on the work of Met. Kallistos of Diokleia on this subject and is entitled: MET. KALLISTOS OF DIOKLEIA: EDUCATION ON ANIMALS AND CREATION CARE. It will take place on February 25th, 2025.

We continue to collaborate with the Oxford Centre for Animal Ethics; The Animal Interfaith Alliance UK; The Orthodox Fellowship of the Transfiguration, USA, and The Volos Academy for Theological Studies, Greece.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Throughout the year we continued to work on highlighting various Animal Protection issues on our Facebook and Twitter group/pages. We often put live petitions from various groups on specific issues, such as the ongoing work to prevent the Importation of Hunting Trophies, Saving the Asian Elephant, or the work to replace the discredited animal testing model with alternatives that are available for 'Big Pharma' to use. We also put articles/papers related to animals on our website see panorthodoxconcernforanimals.org. We also undertake a Yearly Review and you will find the 2023 Review here: 2023 REVIEW – Pan-Orthodox Concern for Animals (panorthodoxconcernforanimals.org) We continue to collaborate with the Oxford Centre for Animal Ethics; The Animal Interfaith Alliance UK; The Orthodox Fellowship of the Transfiguration, USA, and The Volos Academy for Theological Studies, Greece. As a result of the death during this year of our Treasurer, Fr Simon Nellist, it was necessary to make changes to the Officers of the charity. As a result, the Chair became Treasurer, a new Chair was appointed, and a new second signatory of the bank account was added. These changes took place in 2023, although some of the paperwork was not completed until early 2024.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of the Orthodox Christian faith by promoting teachings, ancient and modern, and how they may have relevance to contemporary animal issues

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Due to the Covid-19 restrictions, public meetings were unlawful. Instead, numerous animal protection and scientific on-line zoom seminars were attended.

Work undertaken on books relating to creation care and the climate crisis – see below.

We continued with our collaboration with the Animal Interfaith Alliance.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charities Commission on public benefit when attending rallies and conferences.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Due to the Covid-19 restrictions, public meetings were unlawful. Instead, numerous animal protection and scientific on-line zoom seminars were attended.

We maintained our Facebook and Twitter engagement with the public. We continued to post articles on aspects of creation care and related matters such as climate change, which impacts upon nature and animals, on our website.

We continued with our collaboration with the Animal Interfaith Alliance.

Our Chair, Dr Christine Nellist, collaborated with the Orthodox Fellowship of the Transfiguration, in the USA as advisor on their, The Face of God film, on The Orthodox Church and Climate Change.

Dr Christine Nellist, put out a call for papers for chapters on Creation Care and Climate Crisis, Justice and Sustainability, which resulted in her writing the Introduction, two chapters and the editing of two books entitled:

Climate Crisis and Creation Care: Historical Perspectives, Ecological Integrity and Justice;

Climate Crisis and Sustainable Creaturely Care: Integrated Theology, Governance and Justice.

Both were published just before COP 26.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

2020 was a difficult year for all charities. There were no conferences to attend but engagement with the public continued through Zoom conferences on a variety of animal related issues and through our Facebook and Twitters accounts.

Work began on a 'call for papers' from academics and experts from across the world on various issues relating to the theme of Climate Crisis and Creation Care and a publisher was secured for the project.

We continued to work with our partners and the research team on the 3-year research project on the Christian Ethics of Farmed Animal Welfare. Our Chair was also asked to consult on the Greek Orthodox Church of America's film on the environmental crisis and our care for God's creation
