Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees For the Period Ended 31 March 2024

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2024, which are set out on pages 2 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

For the Period Ended 31 March 2024

Governance, administration and monitoring:

Monitoring of our work ensuring delivery in line with our charitable objects is carried out through an extensive paper trail for all projects along with monitoring visits carried out by staff to the areas of need. These trips include an assessment of the quality of delivery to our beneficiaries along with an examination of the financial and administration records.

Help Orphans is entrusted by donors to deliver to orphans and widows and we maintain strict controls on expenditure, striving to keep associated costs to a minimum. Although we work to keep our administration costs to a minimum, we also value our commitment to ensuring that we are monitoring, assessing and improving our work with beneficiaries and this does require us to invest in thorough due diligence, staff and appropriate policies and procedures. Help Orphans does not make any deduction to Zakat donations.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The trustees regularly review the risks to the charity and are actively monitoring the reserves available to the charity. As there are no significant commitments and the work continues only when funds are available, the trustees have decided to maintain a minimal reserve to cover any contingencies. The trustees are satisfied that the all funds received have been applied in a wholly effective manner.

Charity Objectives

The objectives of Help Orphans are for the public benefit.

The principal aims of the charity and the objective are the relief of poverty and sickness anywhere in the world, those affected by natural causes or by wars and conflicts either foreign or domestic by the provision of financial or other assistance like medicines, shelter, furniture, stationery, food, clothing, sanitation and clean drinking water.

Grant making; Help Orphans are seeking out partner organisations that can further the objectives in an efficient and effective manner. As a result the charity will make grants to other organisations where the trustees feel are deserving and in line with the Help Orphans policies.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE:

Help Orphans continues its dedication to serving orphans and widows through orphan sponsorship programme.

Orphans Sponsorship:

We are supporting children through our orphan sponsorship programme. Each of these children receive a monthly help contributing towards their education, food, clothing and other necessities. The progress of these children is measured by our partners on the ground, who maintain that each child on the programme remain in education as a minimum.

We strive to ensure that our children stay with extended family, where possible. This support we provide them allows them to send the child to school where in other circumstances they may be forced onto the streets to beg or into manual labour. The success of our orphan sponsorship programme is down to our generous donors, who undertake to provide these children with hope through their regular donations.

Charity Shop:

Help Orphans has been able to open a charity shop as a retail outlet based in a busy part of Birmingham, with an increasing footfall of traffic and income. Customers are reminded that the shop supports Help Orphans and is a base for Help Orphans supporters to visit and learn about the organisation as well as purchase goods. It is worth reminding our supporters that we are dealing with new goods in the shop only not second hand, and the profit made is helping the Help Orphans cause.

Since the opening of the shop Help Orphans has seen a growth of income from the Birmingham region, through the publicity of Help Orphans at the site as well as the placing of an office to the rear of the shop. The shop has acted as hub in the region, bringing in old and new donors.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees
for the Period Ended 31 March 2021

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2021, which are set out on pages 2 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
