Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Hankool Foundation

I wish to confirm that I have undertaken an independent examination of the Statement of Accounts for the Hankool Foundation under section 43(3) of the Charities Act 1993 for 2024/2025.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the Trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of procedure specified in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(B) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiners Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and comparison of the account presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe in any material respect, the requirement
 - To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Charities Act, and
 - To prepare accounts in accordance with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act.
 - Have not been met; or
- (2) To which attention should be drawn to enable a proper understanding of the account to be reached.

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	The Chair of Trustees will hold the primary responsibility for overseeing and ensuring the effective implementation of the induction process for new trustees. This process is critical to equipping new appointees with the knowledge, skills, and understanding they need to fulfil their roles effectively and contribute meaningfully to the organisation. A comprehensive training programme will be developed and delivered to all newly appointed trustees. This programme will be designed to provide them with a solid foundation in the key areas necessary for their role. While the training will be tailored to the individual needs and prior experience of each trustee, it will, at a minimum,

cover the following essential areas unless the appointee already possesses sufficient expertise:

1. Governance and Management: Trustees will receive detailed guidance on the principles of good governance, their legal responsibilities, and the specific governance framework of the organisation. This will include an overview of the roles and responsibilities of trustees, the relationship between the board and the executive team, and the importance of strategic decision-making in line with the charity's mission and objectives.
2. Equal Opportunities: Trustees will be trained on the organisation's commitment to equality, diversity, and inclusion. This will include an understanding of relevant legislation, such as the Equality Act 2010, and how these principles are embedded in the charity's operations, policies, and culture.
3. Organisational History and Activities: New trustees will be provided with a thorough introduction to the history, mission, and values of the organisation. This will include an overview of its current activities, key achievements, and strategic priorities, enabling them to understand the context in which they will be operating and the impact of their contributions.
4. Financial Oversight: Trustees will receive sufficient training on the charity's financial accounts and reporting procedures to enable them to exercise effective fiscal oversight. This will include an explanation of key financial documents, such as balance sheets and income statements, as well as an understanding of budgeting, financial controls, and risk management.
5. Charity Policies: New trustees will be given a detailed explanation of all relevant charity policies, including those related to trustee expenses and how they can be claimed. This will ensure they are fully aware of the processes and guidelines in place to support their role and maintain transparency and accountability.

In addition to these core areas, if a new trustee is appointed to take on specific duties or responsibilities, such as chairing a committee or

		leading a particular initiative, their training needs in relation to these roles will be assessed and addressed accordingly. It is recognised that trustees often have a wide range of professional and personal commitments outside of their role with the charity. To accommodate this, every effort will be made to ensure the training programme is flexible and accessible. Training sessions will be scheduled at times that are convenient for the individual, and alternative formats, such as online or self-paced learning, may be offered where appropriate. By providing a robust and tailored induction process, the organisation aims to empower new trustees to perform their duties confidently and effectively, ensuring they are well-equipped to contribute to the charity's success and uphold its values and mission.
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	The Hankool Foundation networks with local organisation and faith-based groups in the area.
