Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Another successful year of homing dogs at Wolfies Legacy. Wolfies Legacy was set up with an idyllic view in mind. One where neglected, disabled and unwanted dogs become companions to lonely or disabled humans that felt something was missing in their life. This dream has become reality. This year we have seen many dogs re-homed, but one case stands out considerably. This was Teddy (who is now named Ricky). Teddy came to us from a home in Norris Green, Liverpool. Norris Green is a poorer council estate and the family who bred Teddy found they didn't have the money to pay for Teddys treatment once he was diagnosed with hydrocephalus. We were fortunate enough to use Leahurst small animal teaching hospital, which is linked to Liverpool University on the Wirral. We were also lucky in meeting Prof Tim Bentley, a pioneering specialist, who donated a magnetic shunt to drain the spinal fluid from Teddy's brain, down a tube to his abdomen. The surgery was a great success and Teddy was adopted. To put the cherry on the cake, Teddys new keeper moved to Thailand to join her son, so now our little boy enjoys every weekend at the beach. I am very proud of this charity's achievements. We have matched families and dogs and improved everyone's life. Our oldest adopter was previously 92, and his dear wife has a three legged dog to protect her since Brian's passing. There isn't an adoption donation for our older adopters, but rather a personal relationship and understanding that when the dog needs to he can come back to the charity. We give our time freely at Wolfie's not just for the benefit of the dogs but for those who need a silent friend by their side.

Only complete if the examiner needs to highlight matters of concern (see CC32, Independent examination of charity accounts: directions and guidance for examiners).

Give here brief details of any items that the examiner wishes to disclose.

I wish to disclose a potential conflict of Interest as my son has been appointed as a Trustee of the charity

From my initial investigations, the accounts have been prepared and are in line with the bank transactions during the year. However, Accounts are also prepared in the Accounting Software Quickbooks, which do not match the Accounts hereby submitted.

It is my intention to work with the preparer of QuickBooks in order to balance the two systems.
