Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The prevention or relief of poverty anywhere in the world by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self-sufficient. And: The relief of people in any part of the world who are in poverty or who are socially or economically disadvantaged by supplying emergency aid, educational opportunities, social activities and business start-up support with a view to empowering beneficiaries to meet their own needs and be self-sufficient.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Aid4Action supports the Khursheed Model High School in Pakistan (run by the Al Khidmat Foundation, a Pakistan registered charity) which provides free and subsidised education. In addition, a School for Street Children has been established. The school premises also hosts a Maternity Clinic, similarly with free or subsidised care, and this, too, is supported by Aid4Action. Aid4Action has also established a Uniform Factory, employing the mothers of students attending the school, has further helped local activities with all profits supporting the school. Additionally, women's and children's clothes regularly collected in the UK and shipped to deprived communities in Pakistan. Furthermore, Aid4Action supports Al Khidmat's branch in Peshawar, Pakistan, which run projects such as Orphanages, Gypsy Community support, Water Wells, Marriages for Orphans and Poor Women, Employment Projects and Mosque Refurbishment. This year we have also started to fundraise for a new Drug Rehabilitation Centre, which will provide holistic support for over 300 beneficiaries (in-patients and out-patients)

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees can confirm that they have abided by the guidance issues by the Charity Commission on public benefit

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Aid4Action has enabled children to access free education that they would otherwise have gone without. This has empowered them and improved their life opportunities for the future. The medical well-being of local women has also been improved as well as the general quality of life. Employment projects have improved the self-esteem of women as well as improving their financial circumstances. Orphans and poor young women have been able to get married, lifting a huge burden from their families. Water Wells (hand-pumps, mechanical pumps and solar-submersible pumps) have brought fresh water to communities that have relied on physically carrying water long distances, which was often of a very poor and sometimes hazardous standard. Rickshaws, sewing machines and farm animals have been provided to support self-employment. Emergency food aid and clothing has also been distributed to those in need.

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Aid4Action

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 5th April 2025.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- Examine the Accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act, and
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the Accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts and seeking explanations from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the Accounts whether the Accounts present a "True and Fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the Trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that: - Proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); or
- Accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or

- (2) To which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Aid4Action

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 5th April 2024.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- Examine the Accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act, and
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the Accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts and seeking explanations from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the Accounts whether the Accounts present a "True and Fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the Trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that: - Proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); or

- Accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or

(2) To which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Aid4Action

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 5th April 2023.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- Examine the Accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act, and
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the Accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts and seeking explanations from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the Accounts whether the Accounts present a "True and Fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the Trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that: - Proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); or

- Accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or

(2) To which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From: 06-04-2022 Period start date To: 05-04-2022 Period end date

Charity name: Aid4Action

Charity registration number: 1175540

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The prevention or relief of poverty anywhere in the world by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self-sufficient. And: The relief of people in any part of the world who are in poverty or who are socially or economically disadvantaged by supplying emergency aid, educational opportunities, social activities and business start-up support with a view to empowering beneficiaries to meet their own needs and be self-sufficient.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Aid4Action supports the Khursheed Model High School in Pakistan (run by the Al Khidmat Foundation, a Pakistan registered charity) which provides free or subsidised education. In addition, a School for Street Children has also been established. The school premises also hosts a maternity clinic, again free or subsidised and this too is supported by the charity. The establishment of a Uniform Factory, employing local women, with all profits supporting the school has further helped local activities. Additionally, women's and children's clothes regularly collected in the UK and shipped to deprived communities in Pakistan. This year, Aid4Action also purchased an Ambulance to serve a large community without access to emergency medical transport. Aid4Action also supports Al Khidmat's branch in Peshawar, Pakistan, which run projects such as Orphanages, Gypsy

		Community support, Water Wells, Marriages for Orphans and Poor Women, Employment Projects and Mosque Refurbishment. This year we have also started to fundraise for a new Hospital, the construction for which was started by other donors but could not continue due to lack of funds.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees can confirm that they have abided by the guidance issues by the Charity Commission on public benefit

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Aid4Action has enabled children to access free education that they would otherwise have gone without. This has empowered them and improved their life opportunities for the future. The medical well-being of local women has also been improved as well as the general quality of life. Employment projects have improved the self-esteem of women as well as improving their financial situation. Orphans and poor young women have been able to get married, lifting a huge burden from their families. Water Wells (hand-pumps, mechanical pumps and solar-powered pumps) have brought fresh water to communities that have relied on physically carrying water long distances, water that often was of extremely poor quality. Rickshaws, sewing machines and farm animals have been provided to support self-employment. Emergency food aid and clothing has also been distributed to those in need. The Ambulance purchased and the construction of a new Hospital will bring emergency and elective medical care to those who could not access it.

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Aid4Action

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 5th April 2021.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- Examine the Accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act, and
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the Accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts and seeking explanations from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the Accounts whether the Accounts present a "True and Fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the Trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that: - Proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); or

- Accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or

(2) To which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
