My Sporting Chance will deliver projects/programmes in conjunction with individuals/communities and schools in challenging social areas throughout the UK.

Our programmes will be aimed at helping through sport to improve the health and fitness of young people at the same time mentoring their social engagement and providing further opportunities not only on the sports field but in the world of education and employment. Through our programmes the charity endeavours to provide exit routes for the young alumni with the cooperation of local authorities and sports organisations. There is now more than ever a need for professional young coaches. My Sporting Chance will work towards educating and ensuring that young people can gain experience in order to become the full-time coaches of the future. Sport has the unique ability to give young people a positive focus in life regardless of any other difficulties that they may face. Opening up a sporting pathway for a young people through education and activity may or may not lead them to becoming an elite athlete but it will play a very positive role in their life.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

For the public benefit to promote for the benefit of people in the UK the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship or social and economic circumstances or for the public at large in the interests of social welfare and improving health.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

My Sporting Chance will deliver projects/programmes in conjunction with individuals/communities and schools in challenging social areas throughout the UK. Our programmes will be aimed at helping through sport to improve the health and fitness of young people at the same time mentoring their social engagement and providing further opportunities not only on the sports field but in the world of education and employment. Through our programmes the charity endeavours to provide exit routes for the young alumni with the cooperation of local authorities and sports organisations. There is now more than ever a need for professional young coaches. My Sporting Chance will work towards educating and ensuring that young people can gain experience in order to become the full-time coaches of the future. Sport has the unique ability to give young people a positive focus in life regardless of any other difficulties that they may face. Opening up a sporting pathway for a young people through education and activity may or may not lead them to becoming an elite athlete but it will play a very positive role in their life.
