Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are to advance such charitable purposes (according to the law of England and Wales) for the public benefit, in any part of the world as the charity trustees may in their absolute discretion think fit from time to time.

The charity has made grants to other registered charities.

The trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance relates.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

The charity has a detailed grant-making policy which it follows when it chooses the registered charities to which it is going to make grants.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has made grants to other registered charities.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity only makes grants out of the distributions that it receives from its investments and so it does not need to build up its reserves.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's only source of funds is the income that it receives from its investments. Its only investments are units in a reputable fund that is only open to charities.
