Kindle Life groups gathering include time of worship, a talk on a selected topic by a speaker and discussion in ZOOM breakout rooms. A mentor is assigned to each breakout room to facilitate the discussion.• We used online platforms such as Facebook, YouTube, Instagram to post inspirational quotes written by youth.• We had team meetings via Zoom on 12th January 2023, 14th August 2023, and 21st December 2023 to discuss the execution of Kindle events.• We had physical team meetings at Transformation Church on 25th March 2023 and 22nd July 2023 to discuss the execution and planning of the events.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the	Para 1.18	Yes, the trustees had considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Charity Commission on public benefit		As Trustees, we are focussed that all the main activities of the charity contribute towards fulfilling the objectives and maximise public benefit. We are inclined towards the development of the youths in various aspects; hence they are given opportunities to be part of the program design and execution of the events. This exposure of taking up challenging roles has enabled the youths to enhance their skills and bring the best out of them. The trustees made sure that the resource people who ministered to the youths are relatable and the best choice for our young people by analysing and evaluating their ministerial credibility and effectiveness.

Reference and Administrative details

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The leadership skills of many youths have been remarkably improved, and the charity's activities have provided a stable growth in the development of the Leadership Skills of the young people. • The KINLDE team members were confident in organising and designing various events. These opportunities improved their leadership and team building skills. This also encouraged the Trustees to promote few of them to Key Leadership (as Key Leaders) of the organization. • The KINDLE mentoring opportunities for the youths aided in the development of responsible, mature, and proactive individuals. This has enabled them to cope well in various tasks in their Universities and Colleges. • Through various activities of KINDLE, young people from various parts of the UK have benefitted to grow in their spiritual as well as personal life.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Acthave not been met ; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
