The directors have risk management strategy comprising of:

- a quarterly review of the risk of the charity may face
- the establishment of actions to mitigate those risks and
- implementation of those action

The Aims and Objectives:

The main aims and objectives of Ummah Appeal are to establish public benefit of the people in the United Kingdom and other deprived parts of the world but not exclusively for the benefit of the people in Bangladesh. Main objectives are in general, will be able to:-

- relieve poverty,
- advance education,
- relive sickness and to promote and protect good health,
- provide or assist in the provision of facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age infirmity or disability, financial hardship or social circumstances with the objective of improving their conditions of life.
- development of training, employment and unemployment issues on educational issues that concern the local residents.

Achievements and performance:

The trust has developed several projects and is offering following services:

1. Winter Projects –

Bangladesh has recently experienced severe cold in harsh winter condition where people have lost their lives due to poorly insulated shelters, inadequate clothing, and heating. To save lives UA launched an emergency winter appeal in which blankets were distributed to the most effect areas.

2. Education Project –

To improve and promote education so that poor and needy can educate themselves and become self-sufficient, UA have distributed books and other education material along with prizes to encourage learning. Laptops and Educational projector screens provided to underprivilege areas where the children can learn about computers and technology which will help the community into integrating into modern world to get out of poverty through technical learning and gaining technical IT skills.

3. Clean Water Project –

One of the projects which has done quite well in terms of raising funds is the clean water well project. UA built clean water wells in areas where there is no clean water. This prevents diseases and loss of lives.

4. Qurbani Projects –

To feed the poor and needy during the sacred festive (Eid ul-Adha) where sacrificed meat is distributed so that their hunger can be relieved, and poor can participate to the rituals of their religious beliefs.

5. Feed the Fasting Project –

Feeding people during the sacred month of Ramadan to have food and other essential when breaking their fast. Items provided to each family for the whole month of Ramadan to the most in need who cannot afford a meal to break their fast.

6. Medical Funds Projects –

Every year 1000's of people dies due to illness or injury which can be cured but because of poverty, poor and needy people don't have money for treatment. UA has successfully identified and helped the very poor with their medical expenses and hence played a role in saving lives.

7. Zakat Projects –

One of the pillars of Islam, Zakat is an obligation for all Muslims to give from their excess wealth. This must be distributed to poor and needy people which includes orphans, widows, anyone one in need of shelter, education, clothing etc. UA have helped 1000s of poor and needy through various zakat projects.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Directors

(COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE)

The financial statements laid out in this report on pages 7 have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the SORP, Accounting and Reporting by Charities Commission issued in January 2015 and applicable Accounting Standards and the Charities Act 2011.

Respective Responsibilities of the Executive Committee and the Examiner

As the Charity's Trustees, and the directors of the company for the purpose of Company Law you are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Statements. The Trustees consider that an Audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011) and that an Independent Examiner is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- Examine the Financial Statements under section 145 of the 2011 Act.
- Follow the procedure laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act and
- State whether particular matters have come to our attention

Basis of Independent Examiners' Report

The examination of the accounts was carried out in accordance with the general direction given by the Charities Commissioner. The examination includes:

- A review of the accounting records kept by the Charity.
- A comparison of the accounts presented with those records made available.
- It includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts.

Finally obtaining explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters relating to the accounts. The examination also includes examination of any such matters of evidence relevant to the account of disclosures in the financial statements. It includes assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances consistently applied and adequately disclosed. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners' Statement

In connection with our examination no matter has come to our attention:

(1) Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

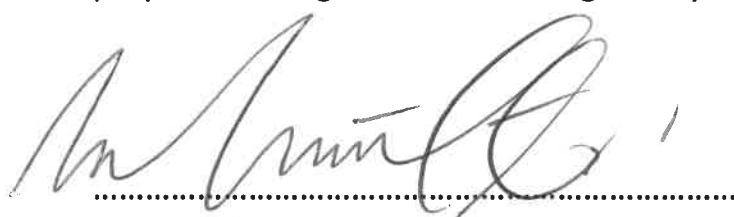

to keep accounting records in accordance with section 140 of the Companies Act 2011; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Companies Act 2011 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities.

have not been met; or

(2) to which in our opinion, attention should be drawn to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statement prepared give a true and fair view of the charity's state of affairs as of 30 September 2024 giving that the incoming resources and their application in the year then ended have been properly prepared with general direction given by the Charities Commissioner.
