Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document	CIO-Association registered 7 th December 2017
How the charity is constituted	A board of a minimum of 4 and a maximum of 12 trustees.
Trustee selection methods	Trustees are appointed by election at the annual general meeting.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Governance Change: On 14th January 2025, with the prior approval of the Charity Commission, the Charity adopted a new constitution, transitioning from the Association Model to the Foundation Model.

Under these new provisions, the power to appoint Trustees is vested in the serving Trustees. Consequently, Trustees are no longer elected by the membership at the Annual General Meeting. This change was implemented to streamline decision-making and ensure a skills-based approach to Board appointments.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Charity are:

- the advancement of the religion of Islam;
- the advancement of Islamic education;
- the relief of sickness and poverty amongst those in need;
- to provide or assist in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation for the public at large with the object of improving their conditions of life.
- We also helped UK registered charities with emergency aid to various causes.
- Donors and volunteers helped sponsor events, marketing, food and provided financial aid towards such events.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trustees have complied with the duty in section 4 and section 17 of the 2011 Charities Act to have due regard to guidance published by the Charity Commission.

The charity provides for the educational, material, and spiritual welfare of Muslims and their neighbours in the Runnymede area. This includes: Imams to lead Jumuah and Eid prayers; Hot meals for Iftar during Ramadan, for students and families; Speakers on Islam to schools, workplaces, and universities; Mosque tours for all age groups & special interest needs Open Days to the general public; Aiming to build a Mosque/Community Centre.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme-related investment;
- Contributions made by volunteers.

All Trustees give their time voluntarily and received no remuneration or other benefits.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Throughout the year the charity has:

- Organised facilities for Islamic daily prayers and Friday sermons, including two Eid festivals.
- Provided speakers on Islam and Muslim cultures to schools and workplaces.
- Provided hot meals for students during the fasting month of Ramadan.
- Continued fundraising for disaster relief charities and for our own community centre.

Section E

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/04/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
