Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Provide activities and information for the local residents

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

A Community Fridge saving food from going to waste
Weekly afterschool clubs and 3 parties a year for the children
Craft club and coffee mornings
Welcoming Warm Space November – March
Leaflets and posters from other organisation about things that may be useful to the residents.

The trustees have given regard to the guidance issued by the charity commission and our constitution to ensure we are fulfilling our charitable aims and objectives.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The volunteers are vital to the operation of the Hub and its activities, most of them have been clients in the past and this gives them specific insights as to what our clients are going through and how best to support them.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We survived, in the summer of last year we were running out of money, we found a few people who made donations and helped with social media and marketing to promote the Hub and what we do, gaining more clients who in turn made small regular donations.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We do not have reserves; every penny goes towards paying our bills and providing the activities and services we provide.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
