Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	(1) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. (2) In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are:

To advance such charitable purposes according to the law of England and Wales as the trustees see fit from time to time.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity carries out its objects by raising money for nominated charitable causes through corporate events.

The trustees have had regard to the public benefit guidance issued by the Charity Commission.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Policy on grant making

When planning a corporate event the trustees will consider which charity or charities will benefit from the funds raised from that event.

The trustees will only approve charities that are:

- registered charities having a charity number, or
- exempt or excepted charities from registering

The trustees may give preference to charities whose purposes include:

- The prevention or relief of poverty
- The advancement of education, health including the saving of lives, animal welfare and environmental protection or improvement
- The relief of those in need, by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage

Contribution made by volunteers

The charity is grateful for the contribution made by volunteers from the Hilton Food Group in organising and running the corporate event held during the year.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Charity's fundraising activities generated £114,264 of income for the year ended 31 December 2024 (2023: £98,032). This in turn allowed the Trustees to make £100,000 (£100,000) of donations split equally between two registered Charities.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

There is no current need or desire for the charity to build up reserves. Therefore, funds raised through corporate events are distributed to its nominated charities.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

There are no funds in deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F Other optional information

Set out on pages

1 to 2 of the Receipts and Payments Accounts

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Charity") for the year ended 31/12/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Charity, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
