Objectives and Aims

UACC Citadel of Praise, is a Christian organization to advance the Christian faith for the benefit of the public in accordance with the statements of belief appearing in the schedule as the trustees from time to time deem fit.

Reserves policy

The trustees review the Reserves policy of the charity annually. The review encompasses the nature of the income and expenditure stream. The Trustee's policy is generally to maintain reserves at a low level and to apply charities income to funding its activities.

Principal funding sources

Our main principal funding sources are from Donations from church members and other Christian organisation.

Financial Review

Our main source of income this past financial year has been from Donations from members. For the financial year ended 31st March 2025, the funds were spent on the on the expenditures in the income statements.

Plans for the Future Periods

For the coming year, the board plans to continue the running of the church and seek more expansion programs that can draw more people to the Kingdom of God.

Trustees Responsibility Statement

For the Year ended 31st March 2024, the trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) and Charities Act 1993.

The provisions of the trust deed require the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources including the income and expenditure of the charity for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; observe the methods and principles in the Charity Act 1993 make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent and prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and Charities Act 1993.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER REPORT FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 31st MARCH 2025

We report on the financial statements prepared for the year ended 31st March 2025 which were submitted along with this note

Responsibilities of the Trustees:

The Charity trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 and that independent examination is needed

Accountant Responsibilities:

It is our responsibility as an accountant to examine the accounts (under section 43 of the Charities Act), to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under the Act) and to state whether the particular matter have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner Report:

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the CHARITY Commission.

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes considerations of any unusual items of disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matter. The procedures undertaken do not provide all evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given whether the accounts present a true and fair view and the report is limited to that matters presented in the financial statement.

Independent examiner statement:

In the course of our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

- Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respects the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance to section 41 of the Charity Act and to prepare accounts which accords with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have not been met: or
- To which in my opinion Attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
