The Great Barr Muslim Foundation
Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees
For the year ended 31 August 2023

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charitable company for the year ended 31 August 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity Trustees, who are also directors for the purposes of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

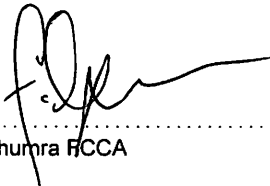

Independent examiners statement

Since the Charitable company's gross income exceeded £250,000, your examiner must be a member of a body listed in section 145 of the 2011 Act. I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination by virtue of my membership of , which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The Great Barr Muslim Foundation is governed by its constitution adopted 17th December 2017. The Charity is registered with the Charities Commission.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

New trustees are appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the trustees. In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, the trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of this organisation.

Organisational structure

The board of trustees oversee the running of the charity on a day-to-day basis as per its constitution document adopted 17th December 2017.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against those risks.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objectives of the charity as set out in its governing document are as follows:

- a) To advance the religion of Islam, by means of, but not exclusively, promoting the teachings and tenets of Islam, provision of facilities for worship and provision of facilities for Islamic Education, in accordance with the teachings of the Qur'aan and the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and the Sahabah-E-Keraam (R.A.A) according to the interpretation and accepted view of the Ahle Sunnah Wal Jamaa-Ah and as expounded by the Salafus Saaliheen (Pious Predecessors) and in accordance to the doctrine of Ash'ari-Maturidi as defined in Clause 29 - Interpretation, Including:

The declaration that; there is no deity worthy of Worship except Allah, and that Muhammad (Peace be upon Him) is the final messenger of Allah.

The acceptance of the four schools of thought being Hanafee, Shaaf'ee, Hanbalee, and Malikee.

The acceptance of the Sunnah of the four rightly guided Caliphs of Islam being Abu-Bakr, 'Umar, 'Uthman and 'Ali (may Allah be please with all of them).

All worship and religious educational matters, for the masjid/madressa, must conform to the Islamic teaching and practices of the Deobandi school of thought.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

- b) The advancement of education for public benefit in the United Kingdom, by means of, but not exclusively, supplementary classes, facilities for nursery education and any such activities as the Trustees may determine from time to time.
- c) To promote racial and religious harmony for the benefit of the public by promoting knowledge and mutual understanding between different racial and faith groups in the United Kingdom, in ways that reduces conflict and creates trust, unity and peace between them.
- d) To relieve financial hardship, distress and sufferings amongst poor people, victims of natural disasters and other people in need, by means decided fit by the Trustees from time to time in the United Kingdom and other deserving parts of the world.
- e) The provision or assistance in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have a need of such facilities by reason of their youth, gender, age, infirmity or disability, financial hardship or social circumstances with the object of improving their conditions of life.

The trustees have reviewed the objectives of the charity to ensure that they provide an overall benefit to the public. In conducting this review, the Trustees have considered Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

We are pleased to report that throughout the year the charity maintained the running of the facilities to achieve its objectives and the Trustees are satisfied with the overall performance of the charity.

The supplementary school has continued with evening and weekend provision. There remains a waiting list to join the supplementary school.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

The continuation of adult classes including practical and exercise focused for ladies were further developed. These developed the self-confidence and social skills of participants and contributed towards developing the community. The Ladies have a coffee morning as well as educational classes to help with their well being as well as educational progress.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Income exceeded the operating expenditure during the period. Work on the ablution area was in progress during the year.

The charity aims to keep reserves to cover costs of activities.

The cash reserves held at 31st August 2023 were £xxxxx. These were to cover ongoing costs as well as to save funds for the future ladies area project.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

The charity is continuing to establish itself and shall continue to build on its current activities and engagements with the local community.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards. In preparing financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
