New trustees have an induction with all relevant information and procedures policies including the charity's organisational structure.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Womb Research UK are:

1. The preservation and protection of good health and the relief of sickness in particular, but not exclusively, by promoting research into all matters connected with or bearing upon the causes, prevention, treatment and care in health and of disease of the womb, to include research into surgery as applied to disease of the womb, and for the publication and dissemination of the results of such research, for the public benefit.
2. The advancement of education for the public benefit by extending, increasing and disseminating knowledge of health and disease of the womb acquired, as a result of the research.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Charitable activities were stopped due to the Covid-19 pandemic situation, which has developed at the beginning of the year and continued into the following year.
The Trustees are aware of the guidance and have taken it into account when making a decision to which the guidance is relevant. The Trustees declare the Womb Research UK purposes are set to be for the public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Minimal activities were undertaken. Only the web pages were maintained and fundraising profiles at JustGiving and PayPal giving funds. All work related to activities and the day-to-day running of the charity were performed by volunteers and trustees.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Due to the pandemic situation there were no great achievements.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Womb Research Reserves Policy is defined in terms of the investments in trusts and can set aside enough money to meet a potential need, such as an unexpected drop in income. Also, funds can be set aside for a specific purpose, such as building works, and these funds are made clear of their specific purpose and separate from the charity's general reserves. The Womb Research UK will aim to maintain a % of yearly expenditure in reserves as agreed in the previous year policy. The reserve policy was discussed and reviewed by Trustees.

Details of any funds materially in deficit
