Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are, for the public benefit:

The prevention or relief of poverty and the advancement of education for the benefit of orphans by providing grants or financial assistance to orphanages.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- Provides grants to organisations.

Charity Commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently;
- Make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the Association will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the association and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
