Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Fiona Foundation for Kids recognises that an effective board of trustees is essential if the charity is to be effective in achieving its objects. The Trustees are representative of the people with whom the charity works and have the knowledge and skills required to run the charity. We have a Trustee Recruitment policy.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The relief of those in need of assistance by reason of youth, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

We continued to contribute to Baby Basics Milton Keynes and to STARR and to support young people in hardship. In recognition of the challenges to local young people.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

2024-25 we continued to support and fund programmes to help children in the most need.

Our focus has been to create the networks for knitters to then create blankets and toilet bags for babies and children taken into care.

Our support through partnership with Baby Basic Milton Keynes, and the hygiene bank has meant this support has been possible.

We have created 300 blankets for Baby Basics and provided 50 full toilet bags to foster groups on Bucks.

Supporting UK children enables us to continue to deliver support in line with our charity constitution.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees propose to maintain FFFK's reserves at a level which is at least equivalent to six months' operational expenditure of any projects to be funded. The trustees review the amount of reserves that are required to ensure that they are adequate to fulfil the charity's continuing obligations.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

NONE

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:
